
BOUYA Eugène Rufin

Vice President of the African Alliance for Electronic Commerce (AACE)
General manager the Single Window for Cross-Border Operations. (CONGO)

Computer engineer, Eugène Rufin BOUYA graduated from a postgraduate degree, dual masters, and master's and computer science, obtained from EPITA Group IONIS in co-accreditation with the ISG in Paris (France).

He also holds a certificate in transport economics, obtained at the LET, National School of Public Works of the State-University Lumière Lyon 2.

He has successfully led several projects such as the electronic system of the Single Window for Cross-Border Transactions (SEG) and the Cargo Tracking Electronic Slot (CGS) of the Congolese Chargers Council where he held the position of Director of Information Systems and management control.

Mr BOUYA is the father of dematerialization and e-government in Congo in the field of e-business and e-commerce.

He worked in the digital field in France and Belgium in service and computer engineering companies. An international expert, Mr. BOUYA capitalizes on several years of experience in the field of digital and trade facilitation.

Very well on the issue of computer engineering, the dematerialization of procedures and documents, international activities in the field of ICT and international trade. He is the first and current Director General of the Single Window for Cross-Border Operations.