Tables

Economic indicators
Forest products production and trade in 2008, 2009 and 2010.

The tables on forest products production and trade, organized by product, will be published after the meeting.

Specific topics for this year can be found in the cover letter addressed to Timber Committee Heads of Delegation

The Committee encouraged delegations to submit Country Market Statements in electronic format. The following Market Statements were received and are set out below without any changes or editing. Other member countries wishing to be added to the list are invited to send their texts to the secretariat at the contact address on the left.
