1 | WHAT ARE THE CONSULTATIONS TELLING US?

THE STORY SO FAR: UNPRECEDENTED ENGAGEMENT IN SHAPING THE POST-2015 AGENDA

This report captures the results of an unprecedented global conversation on the vision for the post-2015 development framework, involving more than 1 million people from all around the world. In 2012, members of the United Nations Development Group (UNDG)[1] responded to the Secretary-General's call for an open and inclusive process to shape this vision and bring the voices of individuals and civil society into the conversation. We have cast the net wide and tried to be as inclusive as possible, recognizing that processes will be different in each country. Many countries made special efforts to reach out to marginalized and disadvantaged groups of all ages and nationalities: voices that have so far been

Next steps…to January 2014

- Develop consensus around post-2015 target for road safety (e.g. 50% reduction by 2030 / deaths per 100k) and broader sustainable transport targets

- UNEP drafting discussion paper on sustainable transport on behalf of UN agencies

- Need coalition e.g. UNRSC members, Global NGO Alliance, FIA, SLoCaT, UN Friends of Sustainable Transport, to canvas support in Open Working Group

- Target: UN Consultation 7th January 2014
