Article 3 General provisions

I.1. Please provide the main legislative, regulatory and other measures you have adopted in your country to implement the Protocol (art. 3, para. 1) (more than one option may apply):

- (a) Law on SEA (please indicate number/year/name): n/a
- (b) SEA provisions are transposed into another law(s) (please specify): n/a
- (c) Regulation (please indicate number/year/name): Strategic Environmental Assessment Regulations (hereinafter the 'Regulations') issued under the Environment Protection Act (Chapter 435 of the Laws of Malta) and brought into force by Regulation 497 in 2010.

- (e) Other (please specify):

Your comments:

Article 4 Field of application concerning plans and programmes

I.2. List the types of plans and programmes that require SEA in your legislation:

An SEA is carried out for all plans and programmes which:

(a) are prepared for agriculture, forestry, fisheries, energy, industry, transport, waste management, water management, telecommunications, tourism, town and country planning or land use and which set the framework for future development consent of projects listed in Annexes I and II to Directive 85/337/EEC, or

(b) in view of the likely effect on sites, have been determined to require an assessment pursuant to Article 6 or 7 of Directive 92/43/EEC.

However plans and programmes referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above which determine the use of small areas at local level, and minor modifications to plans and programmes also referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above, require an SEA only where the responsible authority determines that they are likely to have significant environmental effects.

In addition, the responsible authority must determine whether its plans and programmes, other than those referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above, which set the framework for future development consent of projects, are likely to have significant environmental effects, in which case the strategic environmental assessment procedure also applies.

The responsible authority must determine whether plans or programmes referred to in the last two paragraphs are likely to have significant environmental effects either through case by case examination or by specifying types of plans and programmes or by combining both approaches. For this purpose the responsible authority must in all cases take into account relevant criteria set out in a schedule incorporated in the Regulations (reflecting the criteria in Directive 2001/42/EC), in order to ensure that plans and programmes with likely significant effects on the environment fall within the scope of the Regulations.

I.3. Explain how you define whether a plan or programme “set the framework for future development consent” (art. 4, para. 2): The National Regulation does not contain such definition. Hence every case is assessed on its own merits.

I.4. Explain how the terms “plans and programmes ... which determine the use of small areas at local level” (art. 4, para. 4) are interpreted in your legislation: The National Regulation does not contain any definition to this. Hence every case is assessed on its own merits by taking into account the specific circumstances surrounding it, such as its objectives and the geographical scope thereof. It is worth pointing out that Malta is a very small territory. It covers just over 316km<sup>2</sup> with a population of about 450,000 and that therefore the interpretation given is in relation to these particular circumstances of the country.

I.5. Explain how you identify in your legislation a “minor modification” to a plan or programme (art. 4, para. 4): The Regulation points out that the Responsible Authority shall determine whether an SEA is necessary in respect to plans and programmes which involve minor modifications, in consultations with the Competent Authority.

Article 5 Screening

I.6. How do you determine which other plans and programmes should be subject to a SEA as set out in article 4, paragraphs 3 and 4, in accordance with article 5, paragraph 1? Please specify:

- (a) On a case-by-case basis
- (b) By specifying types of plans and programmes
- (c) By using a combination of (a) and (b)
- (d) Other (please specify):

- (b) By sending written comments to the local municipality

- (c) By providing answers to a questionnaire
- (d) By taking part in a public hearing
- (e) By sending written comments to the consultants/SEA experts or persons preparing the plans and programmes
- (f) Other (please specify):

The public does not participate in the screening of plans and programmes. However, the responsible authority must ensure that its conclusions of the screening stage, including the reasons for not requiring an SEA, are made available also to the public.

The public participates in the scoping of plans and programmes. At that stage where it is determined that an SEA is required the responsible authority must make the plan or programme and its environmental report available to the public electronically and in published form for viewing at its offices. In order to reach out to the public affected or likely to be affected by, or having an interest in, the decision making subject to the Regulations, including relevant non-governmental organisations, such as those promoting environmental protection and other organisations concerned, the notice of availability of the plan or programme and the environmental report must be published in at least the Government Gazette together with specific details of where the documentation is available and how comments can be submitted and by which date.

The responsible authority must ensure that the public is given an early and effective opportunity within an adequate time-frame, to express its opinion on the draft plan or programme and the accompanying environmental report before the adoption of the plan or programme or its submission to the legislative procedure. Such time-frames cannot exceed sixteen (16) weeks from the publication of the plan or programme and its environmental report.

Your comments:

Article 6 Scoping

I.8. How do you determine what is the relevant information to be included in the environmental report, in accordance with article 7, paragraph 2 (art. 6, para. 1)?

Schedule I to the National Regulation lists the information that has to be included in the environmental report., which include:

an outline of the contents, main objectives of the plan or programme and relationship with other relevant plans and programmes; the state of the environment (characteristics) with or without the implementation of the plan or programme and its effects. Moreover, it requires any existing environmental problems which are relevant to the plan or programme; the environmental protection objectives, established at international, European or national level and how these have been taken into account during its preparation; the likely significant effects on the environment, including on issues enlisted in the EU Directive 2001/42/EC (Annex I)

It also includes the measures envisaged to prevent, reduce and as fully as possible offset any significant adverse effects on the environment of implementing the plan or programme; an outline of the reasons for selecting the alternatives dealt with, which includes description of how the assessment was undertaken including any difficulties (technical, lack of know encountered in compiling the required information); a description of the measures envisaged
