Dear Ms Marshall

Communication to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee concerning compliance by the United Kingdom with the Convention on public participation in connection with the River Faughan (ACCC/C/2013/90)

Please find attached River Faughan Anglers (RFA) response to the Party's answers to the Aarhus Committee's questions. These are made without access to the Party's attachment's as these have not yet been submitted by the Party. However, it was considered prudent to make available to the Committee and Secretariat, RFA's input as far in advance as possible of the next sitting scheduled for 12 – 16 March 2018, as there is a concern the late submission of information would lead to delay in the Committee's adjudication.

This has been provided in the form of a Word document where that Party's response appears in black and our organisation's input in red after each point. Supporting evidence has been provided in the form of attachments RFA TABs 1 – 8.

It is not RFA's intention to provide further comment if / when the Party provides its supporting documentation, unless these raise unforeseen issues of significance.

Yours sincerely

Dean Blackwood BSc (Hons) LL.M MRTPI
Director
