

Dear Mrs. Smagadi,

First of all I wish to thank all of Colleagues who have prepared the Draft Report on Compliance by Albania with its obligations under the Aarhus Convention.

The draft report analyses and presents objectively the situation on the implementation of the Convention in Albania and made progress as well.

The findings and recommendations in this draft report are also an strong encouragement for Albania to further progress in the implementation of the Convention.

As stressed in the draft report, Albania remains fully committed to achieve the Convention aims and strengthen its implementation.

With my very best regards,

Klodian
