At its fifty-sixth meeting (Geneva, 28 February - 3 March 2017), the Compliance Committee considered request ACCC/M/2014/1 from the Meeting of the Parties concerning the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia and its ongoing failure to submit its national implementation report for the 2014 reporting cycle.

The Committee has requested the secretariat to inform you that, unless the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia submits its National Implementation Report for the 2014 reporting cycle by Wednesday, 15 March 2017, the Committee will forthwith after that date prepare draft findings concerning the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia's compliance with article 10, paragraph 2 of the Convention. Once adopted, those findings will be submitted to the sixth session of the Meeting of the Parties.

Please feel free to contact the secretariat if you should require any clarification regarding the above.

Kind regards,
Fiona
