

First Editorial Committee meeting of the OCE gtr 8 & 9 November 2004, Tokyo, Japan

This was a meeting of the Editorial Committee. There were no meeting minutes taken during this meeting. The agenda for the meeting was as follows:

1. Greetings and Administrative Matters (Ms. Vardas and Ms. Toba)
2. Directions to editorial committee outlined at OCE 8th Plenary Meeting in Chicago (Ms. Vardas)
3. Overview and Review of Materials Provided to Committee (Mr. Rick Gezelle, serving as acting Chairperson for the editorial meeting)
4. Section B.5. Performance Requirements: Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
5. Section B.6. Applicable Operating Conditions: Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
6. Section B.7. NTE Test Procedures: Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
7. Section B.8 Compliance exclusion from certain NTE operating points: Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
8. Section B.9 NTE deficiencies: Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
9. Section B.10 NTE Carve-Outs and Technology-based NTE exclusions: Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
10. Section B.11 Documentation for Application for Compliance (or Annex): Line-by-line editing, identification of information gaps and references, issues identification
11. Appendices – identification of potential appendices, discussion of appropriate format
12. Next Steps –
 - A. How to reach Goal of having Sections B. 5- 10 for OCE working group review by January plenary meeting
 - B. Review list of assignments/information needs/inter-working group dialogue follow-up