

Evaluation of the UNECE project "Strengthening national capacities for sustainable housing and urban development in countries with economies in transition" - UNDA, 9th tranche, project code 1415AC (January 2018)

Progress report as at 31 December 2018

#	Recommendation	Management response	Responsibility	Date of implementation/comments
1	HLMU should follow the best practice of administering to the beneficiaries on-the spot online (or paper-based where unavoidable) surveys as the standard operational procedure for all workshops and seminars. Such surveys should always include requests for qualitative comments and proposals by participants. The summaries of returns and their analytics should be stored online and become part of the records of the project implementation to be used for lessons learning purpose. The staff of HLMU should be trained in using Google Forms and Survey Monkey	One day workshop is planned to be organised during July -August 2018 with a trainer.	HLMU	Project staff was trained in the use of Survey Monkey which is now regularly used for conducting surveys and feedbacks.
2	The project performance monitoring reporting through the Project Monitoring Tool (PMT) should be made more comprehensive and contemporaneous to its implementation.	The recommendation is not accepted. HLMU is a user which, like other project managers completes information according to the template and requirements established. The PMT was developed as an interim tool to provide updates to member States. Further enhancement of the PMT will not be made pending the deployment of new UMOJA modules in 2018. The HLMU will continue to update the PMT with the information required.	Not applicable	Not applicable
3	The HLMU should when resources are available strategize shifting the emphasis in its capacity- development activities towards e-learning and taking advantage of best	The recommendation is fully accepted. The HLMU has mapped available resources and tools to offer e-learning. This includes online thematic lectures in English and Russian languages on relevant topics saved on YouTube	HLMU	Concept paper is being developed for the regional observatory on urban related SDGs. Responsible staff is Gulnara Roll, Head of Housing and Land Management Unit. The

practices in online training.	and available through web. HLMU has discussed establishment of regional portal using innovative e-learning approaches with the SDGU which is currently considering establishment of such a portal for the UNECE region. This initiative would require additional funds, which. The viability of this option will be determined by 31 December 2018. As an interim measure HLMU identified SDGHelpdesk webportal, developed by UNESCAP as a useful platform for its e-learning materials https://sdghelpdesk.unescap.org. HLMU will provide online trainings and e-learning through SDGHelpdesk webportal and UNECE website, where some of the e-learning materials are provided http://www.unece.org/housing-and-land-management/training-materials.html Several teleconferences were organized with UN ESCAP and OICT, it was agreed UNECE will provide its training materials (publications, online lectures) on its own website and will share a link with ESCAP who will add the links to the portal. Follow up actions and responsibilities Task of strategizing completed in March-April 2018. The work on setting up e-learning materials on SDG Helpdesk will be conducted in August-December 2018.		concept paper will be finalised end December 2018 and will be made available at the HLM Unit webpage. Work is ongoing on the development of the e-learning and trainings. Please see the already developed training materials on: http://www.unece.org/housing-and-land-management/training-materials.html . The webpage is being regularly updated. E-learning materials at link: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hlqViFfseuA&amp;list=PL889FD40CAFFC5B94&amp;index=19 A possibility of using ESCAP portal was tested however it does not allow to present UNECE information in a targeted manner. Therefore, the training materials and e-learning are being established at the UNECE HLM webpage.
4 The HLMU webpage with online information on best practices should be created and desirably complemented with an online forum facility for experts. This is subject to availability of resources. It should be linked to the UN-Habitat Best Practices Database, Best Practices Unit and Global Urban Lectures webpages.	The recommendation is fully accepted The UNECE webpage, http://www.unece.org/housing-and-land-management/training-materials.html, has been created. The UN-Habitat materials are available through this webpage. As explained above, further SDG helpdesk portal will be used as the platform.	HLMU	Training materials with best practices are available at: http://www.unece.org/housing-and-land-management/training-materials.html.
