

Committee for Coordinating Science and Technologies Development
under Cabinet Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan

www.ftk.cc.uz

Science and Technology of Uzbekistan

Today Uzbekistan is a large scientific center in Central Asia, which has developed exploratory material base, extensive scientific foundation, qualified scientific personnel.

Research complex of the republic comprises of 361 institutions of academic, university and economic profile, including

202 Scientific - research institutes,

62 Universities

65 Project-design organizations

32 Research-and-production associations and experimental enterprises.

Science and Technology of Uzbekistan

- ▶ Near 33,6 thousand people are occupied in scientific sphere, including 2,4 thousand professors and approximately 9,0 thousand doctors (PhD) of sciences and 2,2 thousand PHD students.

Science and Technology of Uzbekistan

1992 – 2002

State Committee for S&T

2002 – 2006

S&T Center under Cabinet Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan

2006 – present

Committee for Coordinating Science and Technologies Development under Cabinet Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan

Science and Technology of Uzbekistan

Committee for Coordinating Science and Technologies Development

S&T Coordination System

Science and Technology of Uzbekistan

Basic (fundamental) researches – 5 years

Finance – 100% by budget

Applied researches – 3 years

Finance – 90% budget, 10% industry

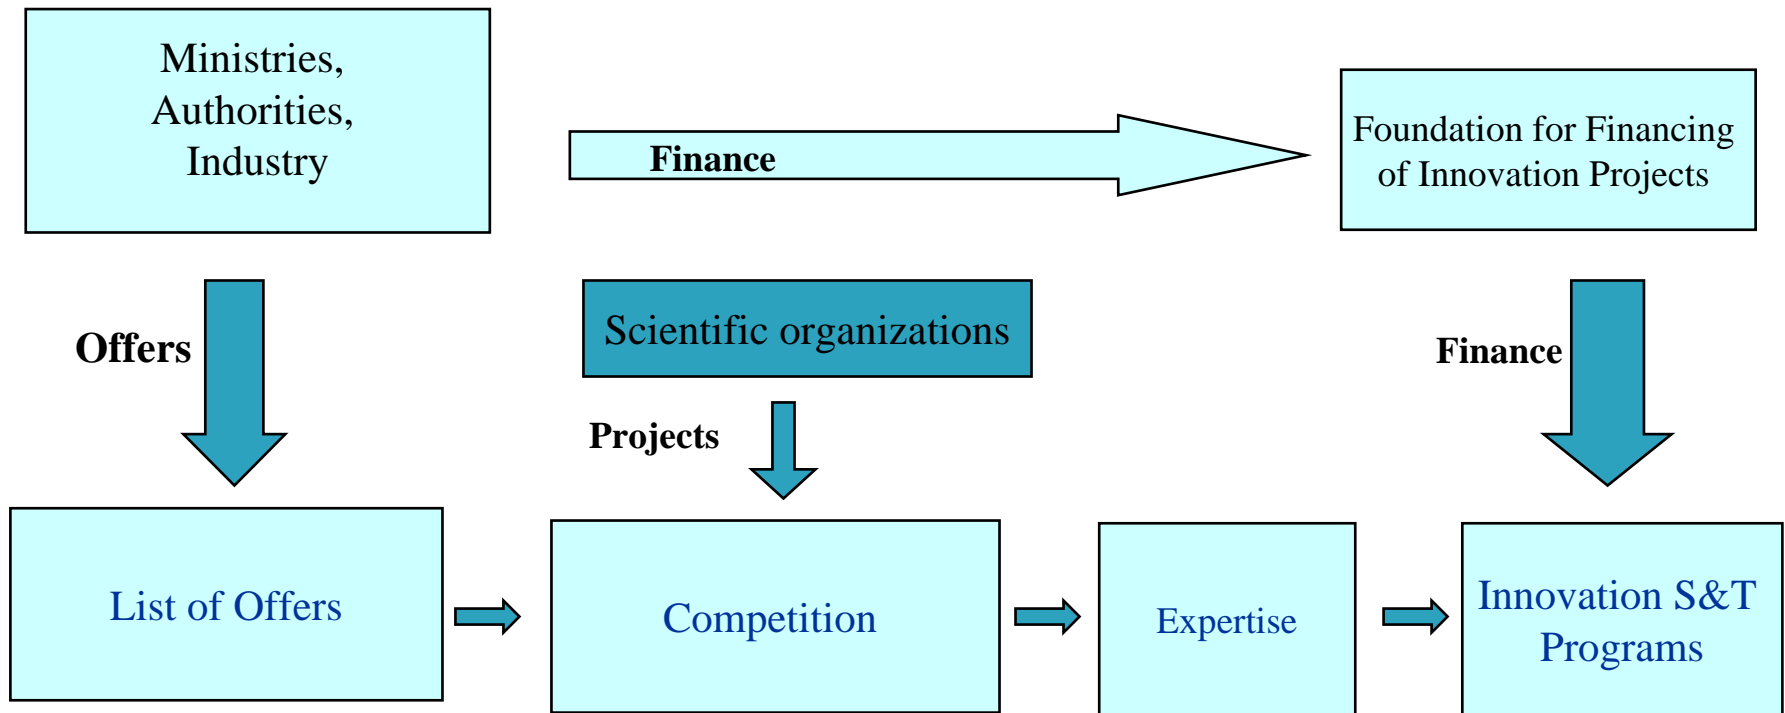

Innovation projects – 2 years

Finance – 50% budget, 50% industry

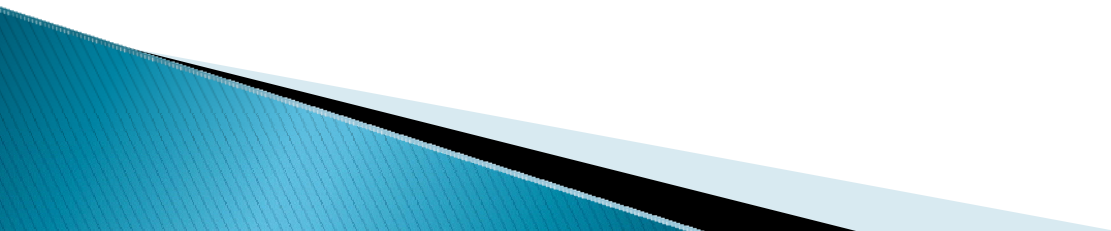

International S&T projects – 2-3 years

Finance – 25% budget, 75% donors

Mechanism of Competitions

Innovation Fair

- ▶ Industry
 - ▶ Agriculture
 - ▶ Health care & Pharmacy
 - ▶ IT
 - ▶ Science & Education
-

Innovation Infrastructure

Committee for Coordinating Science and Technologies Development

Regional S&TT Centers
(8)

Innovation Centers (University)
(60)

Innovation Centers
(Industry)
(20)

THANK YOU!