Tuesday, 24 February am	Item 2: Economic developments in the UNECE region	Executive Secretary	Under this item the major conclusions of the first issue of the Economic Survey of Europe, 2004 will be presented and discussed.	Economic Survey of Europe
Tuesday, 24 February am/pm	Item: 3 Policies to stimulate competitiveness and growth		Under this item two round-table discussions will be organized, both with the participation of government representatives. It is proposed that the first provide for an exchange of experiences on best practices and national policies that have proved successful in increasing competitiveness and growth. The second would focus on regional initiatives and cooperation in the UNECE region as well as the role of the UNCE in stimulating competitiveness. A synthesis of the debate containing “lessons learned” would subsequently be prepared and circulated by the secretariat to UNECE member States. <sup>1</sup> Immediately following the meeting’s adjournment, and in the same meeting room, a co-director of the United Nations Intellectual History Project (UNIHP) and former Executive Secretary of the UNECE will officially launch the book: “Unity and Diversity of Development Ideas: Perspectives from the UN Regional Commissions.” The book, which will also be launched at the other four regional commissions, is part of a series of books being prepared in the context of UNIHP. It examines how development ideas were created, developed, questioned and implemented within the world’s main regions, as seen through the lens of the United Nations regional commissions.

General Notes

1. The fifty-ninth session of the Commission (24-26 February 2004) will be preceded by a seminar. Debate under the session's agenda item 2 will draw upon the seminar's discussion.
2. In accordance with the Commission's Rules of Procedure, the documents referred to in the Provisional Agenda will, wherever possible, be transmitted to Governments in the Commission's three official languages (English, French, Russian) not less than forty-two days before the opening of the session, i.e. not later than 12 January 2004. For reasons of economy, delegates are requested to bring copies of the documents mentioned in the provisional agenda to the meeting.
3. and representatives from other organizations/initiatives should refrain from general statements and limit themselves to specific observations and proposals for action. Any delegation wishing to provide a text for distribution is requested to provide the secretariat, preferably in advance of the session, with sufficient copies (approximately 75).
