

КазНИИ Энергетики

(Kazakh Research Institute of Power Engineering)

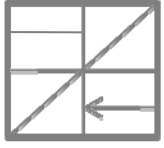

Report about the fulfillment of the project

Investment into energy effectiveness to decrease the climate changing

The Republic Center of energy-economy and energy-effectiveness with the Kazakh Scientific Research Institute of power engineering of the name of the academician of SH.CH. Chokina

Geneva

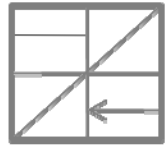

7-9 november 2009

Base: Memorandum about the Mutual Understanding

The plan of procedure provides for Grants's assignment to the national participating sides for conducting the preparatory works, which include construction of Web site and conducting a situation study, and also the possibility of the assignment of the additional possibilities of the purposes of project.

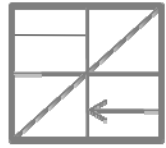

Creation of national Web site in accordance with the project

The Web site of national project functions since July 4, 2009. in accordance with the task with respect to the development.

The name of the web site - www.energy-effect.kz

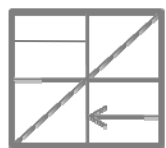

Content of the Web site:

- Information about the development of the basic energy sectors of the country;
- Information about the political, legal reforms of the country and the development the market for energy-effectiveness;
- Information about the formation of the market for energy-effectiveness and renewed energy;
- Schedule of events;
- Library;
- Business projects;
- Information about participants in the project.

Creation of national Web site in accordance with the project

- The Web site of national project is augmented by concrete projects by the realizable ministries and departments of republic of Kazakhstan.
- Responsible subject for the national Web site of project is the Republic Center of energy-saving and energy-effectiveness with the Kazakh Scientific Research Institute of power engineering of the name of the academician of SH.CH. Chokina,
The National Participating Side

Information on the national energy policy

- Information on the national energy policy is executed on the basis of agreement between the republic center of energy-saving and energy-effectiveness and the national coordinator to project and is returned the European economic commission of United Nations within the established periods.

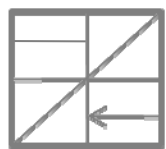

The work is accepted and verified via letter

Report on national energy policy, is included:

Information about the state of the basic energy sectors of the country;

Information about the motion of the realization of the reforms, aimed for the creation of power systems on the market basis, including information in the field of power engineering, the market for electro power, gas, energy-effectiveness and renewed energy sources;

Information about the special features of policy, about the juridical, the administrative and institutional “bottlenecks”, which impede establishing of the market for energy-effectiveness and renewed energy.

Work on the project

- In the period of July 7th to 10th 2009. with the participation of national coordinator from Kazakhstan on this project by Mr. Trofimov G.G. and by colleague “the republic center of energy-saving and energy-effectiveness, Mr. Raimkulov A.A. is carried out work with the company “Poyry Of energy Of consulting (Schweiz) AG” in composition of senior consultant mrs Franceska Paoletti, Mr. Marcus Nieto Rivera the consultant and the representative of the European economic commissions of United Nations Mrs. Olga Chepelianskaia, junior expert division on energy-effectiveness 21 (EE 21) on the basis of the renewed energy sources.
- Work was conducted in the cities Astana and Almaty, where took place encounters with ministries and departments of republic Kazakhstan, and also with the banks and business by structures. Information about the trip it is published in the Web site of national project.

КазНИИ Энергетики

(Kazakh Research Institute of Power Engineering)

Thanks for the attention