

Webinar on the Overview of Methodologies for Hazard Rating of Industrial Sites

ECE Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents

Eighth Meeting of the Conference of the Parties

Geneva, 3 – 5 December 2014

Agenda Item 10

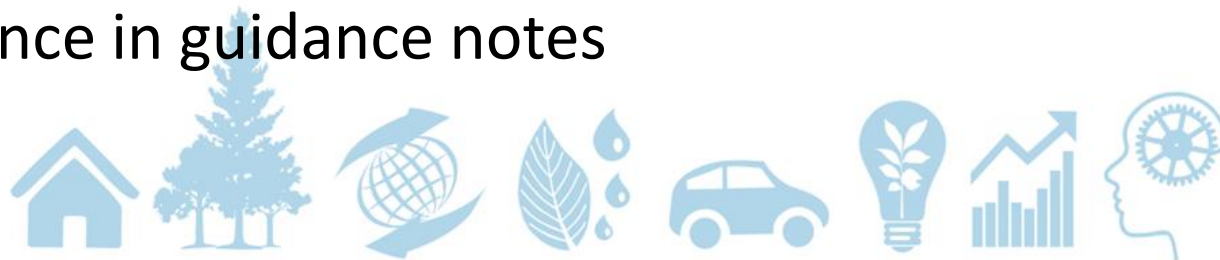

Nikolay Savov

Assistance Programme Manager

Background

- ❑ 7th Conference of the Parties of the Industrial Accidents Convention
 - ❑ Development of a guide on methodology for hazard rating - included in the Convention's work plan for 2013-14
 - ❑ With partners
- ❑ Major Accident Hazards Bureau (MAHB) of the European Commission's Joint Research Centre (JRC)
 - ❑ Provides scientific support to the implementation of the Seveso II Directive
 - ❑ Experience in guidance notes

Webinar

Objectives

- to provide information on hazard rating methodologies
- to promote the hazard rating overview and gather feedback
- to examine how it could be used by the ECE member countries
- to identify follow-up activities in this area

Target groups

- National competent and enforcement authorities
- International organizations
- Academia and NGO

Industry

Webinar

- 25 November 2014
 - WEBEX Teleconference
 - Co-organized with MAHB
 - Support by Belgium and Switzerland
- Participants
 - 37 registered participants
 - Representatives of all target groups
 - Participants from non-ECE countries (Saudi Arabia, UAE,)

Webinar

- Presentations on:
 - Background on the development and possible uses
 - Methodology of the development
 - Contents of the Overview of Methodologies for Hazard Rating of Industrial Sites
 - Case studies of hazard rating methodologies, used by Belgium and Switzerland
- Discussion on possible uses

Thank you for your attention!

