Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents and Industrial accidents can happen anywhere, anytime. Often, they have severe consequences on human health and the environment, including in other affected countries. The Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents helps its Parties to prevent industrial accidents and to prepare for and respond to accidents if they occur. The Convention contributes to the attainment of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, including the Sustainable Development Goals.

For questions and further information:
Secretariat to the Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents teia@unece.org
www.unece.org/env/teia.html