Strengthening Civic Society in the Czech Republic

Free Access to Public Information
We strengthen the culture of open public administration. We are partner of both administration and active citizens. We believe modern technologies should be used when handling information.

Police As Public Service
We are a partner of the Police on their way to the trust of citizens. Regaining credibility requires the Police to know problems faced by the public. It is necessary to prioritize prevention before repression.

Enforcing Gender Equity
In terms of gender equity the Czech society finds itself on a level of a developing country. It is not only women who pay the price for that. We point out that gender equity is not a fight among men and women but a dispute of democrats vs. non-democrats.
