

Mohammad Nahavandian

- Advisor to the “Center for Strategic Studies”, Islamic Republic of Iran
- Vice President for Research, “Institute for Humanities and Cultural Studies”, Tehran, Iran

Academic Background:

- Ph.D. in Economics (International Economics, Industrial Organization), the George Washington University, Washington, D.C., U.S.A.
- Lecturer, International Economics, Development Planning, Energy Economics, Electronic Business at George Washington., Tehran , Ferdowsi and Tarbiat Modarres Universities

Work Experience:

- Trade Envoy Plenipotentiary, Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran, 1996-2002
- Deputy Minister of Commerce, Iran, 1994-2002
- President of the Institute for Trade Studies and Research, Tehran, 1994-2002
- Member of the President’s Economic Advisory Council, 1995-1997

International Activities:

- President, ASEB/AFACT, 1998-1999
- Rapporteur General, “UNCTAD 10 General Assembly” , Bangkok, Thailand, 2000
- Speaker, “UN Symposium on Digital Economy”, Beijing, People’s Republic of China, 2001
- Speaker, “WIPO Seminar on Intellectual Property and Traditional Knowledge” , Juke Jakarta, Indonesia, 2001
- Chairman, “WIPO International Conference on Electronic Business and Intellectual Property”, Tehran, Iran, 2002

Publications:

- “New Horizons in Trade Policy-Making”, Commerce Publishing Co. , Tehran, 2002
- “Tobacco Conflict, Study of Iran-British Economic Relations in 19th Century”, Fajr Publications, Tehran, 1978
- Organized and supervised more than 150 research projects, 25 Ph.D. and master’s dissertations