1 How to get to Liechtenstein

1.1 By plane

Liechtenstein doesn't have its own airport, but three international airports are only about a one hour drive away.

The closest airports to Liechtenstein are:

Zürich- Kloten (Switzerland):	115 kilometers
St. Gallen- Altenrhein (Switzerland):	50 kilometers
Friedrichshafen (Germany):	85 kilometers

Taxis to Liechtenstein are available at the respective airports. The costs are approximately 2 CHF per kilometer.

1.2 By car

In order to arrive to Liechtenstein by car you can choose between several options:

- St. Gallen: take the A13 motorway (approximately 45 minutes)
- Zürich: take the A3 motorway to Sargans and then switch to the A13 (approximately 1 h)
- Munich: take the A96 motorway and then switch to the A14 in Austria (approximately 3 h)
- Innsbruck: take the A12, switch to the S16 and then take the A14 (approximately 2.5 h)

A vignette (8.80 € Austria; 40 CHF Switzerland) is needed to travel on motorways in Austria and Switzerland. There are no custom controls between Switzerland and Liechtenstein.

1.3 By train

Rail passengers should travel to Sargans, Buchs (Switzerland) or Feldkirch (Austria), where they can take one of the regular buses (LIEmobil) to the region of Liechtenstein they are staying in.

There will be a shuttle service from Sargans Train Station (Switzerland) to Ruggell on the 7th of November.

General Information for your stay in Liechtenstein

Time Zone:

Standard Time Zone: GMT/UTC + 01:00 hour

Language:

German is the official language in Liechtenstein.

Currency:

The currency in Liechtenstein is the Swiss franc (CHF).

Electrical Standard:

The electricity in Liechtenstein is 230 V, 50 Hz. In Liechtenstein Type J sockets are used, they work with the European plug C, but NOT with plug N.

Dialing Code:

The international dialing code for the country is +423.

Outgoing international calls can be made by dialing: "+" (or 00) followed by the country code, city code and the number.

Weather:

Despite its mountainous location, Liechtenstein enjoys a relatively mild climate thanks to the influence of a warm down-slope wind known as the Föhn. The Föhn plays a major role in the climate of the Rhine Valley, where the influence of the warm wind leads to a longer growing period in spring and autumn. Indeed, even in winter temperatures of up to 15°C are regularly recorded, but the temperature can fall below -15°C.
