

Key activities and outcomes of the UNDA 10th tranche project 'Evidence-based policies for sustainable housing and urban development in selected countries with economies in transition'

Christophe Lalande, UN-Habitat
Gulnara Roll, UNECE

Project information

- Project period: June 2016 – December 2020.
- Project objective: to strengthen national capacity to develop evidence-based policies to achieve inclusive and sustainable housing and urban development in four selected countries with transition economies in the UNECE region; and to support the realization of the achievement of SDG 11
- Partners: UNECE and UN-Habitat
- Expert support: University of Geneva
- Pilot countries in 2016-2019: Albania, Georgia, Kyrgyzstan and Ukraine;
In 2019-2020 two additional countries – Belarus and Kazakhstan.

Project activities

The project supports the implementation of the 2030 Agenda, New Urban Agenda, Geneva UN Charter on Sustainable Housing, the Geneva Ministerial Declaration through developing capacities for evidence-based policies.

Activities:

- Guidelines for evidence-based policies for sustainable housing and urban development
- Policy paper with the analysis of the policies in pilot countries
- Advisory missions
- National and regional workshops
- National policy packages to be developed
- Online trainings.

Guidelines for evidence-based policies for sustainable housing and urban development

- The guidelines aim to support the efforts of governments in the UNECE region to improve evidence-based policymaking on sustainable urban development and housing.
- 4 sets of recommendations:
  - A. Ensure an integrated and coordinated approach to the review of the implementation of the 2030 Agenda.
  - B. Support openness of the data collection.
  - C. Promote comprehensive and integrated approaches to the organization of data.
  - D. Reduce Bias.