3. First cycle of the review and appraisal of MIPAA: modalities and procedure

UN PROGRAMME ON AGEING
Alexandre Sidorenko 2006

Key Modalities of National Review & Appraisal:

- 1. Review and appraisal will be undertaken every five years
- 2. Specific theme emanating from MIPAA was identified by the UN Secretary-General for the first cycle (2007-2008)
- 3. Review and appraisal will include two dimensions: ageing-specific policies and ageing-mainstreaming efforts
- 4. Bottom-up and flexible approach will be the major format of the review and appraisal exercise

UN PROGRAMME ON AGEING
Alexandre Sidorenko 2006

Key definitions of the principal approach to review and appraisal of MIPAA:

Participatory:

- Older persons. People of different ages
- Different partners (government, civil society, academia...)

Bottom-up:

Going where the sight of action is → local level

Flexible:

Different challenges and opportunities → specific priorities → corresponding actions → appropriate methods of evaluation...

Priority Directions of MIPAA

Areas of Inquiry

I. Older Persons and Development

I. Level of integration of ageing and development

II. Advancing Health and Well-being into Old Age

II. Quality of life of older persons

III. Ensuring Enabling and Supportive Environments

III. State of supportive environment promoting individual development into older age

The first global cycle of the review and appraisal of MIPAA -

- Will start in 2007 at the forty-fifth session of the Commission for Social Development and conclude it in 2008 at its forty-sixth session.
- Global theme: “Addressing the challenges and opportunities of ageing”.
- Significant regional component
- Format of the concluding event (in 2008): plenary debate + a series of panel discussions and events related to the theme of the first review and appraisal cycle.
