Notes:
- The above text is a structured questionnaire designed to collect demographic and household information. The questionnaire is divided into sections for different categories of data collection, such as household characteristics and personal information.
- The text uses checkboxes and prompts to guide the respondent through the data collection process.
- The information collected includes details about household members, their relationships, age, marital status, and main activities, as well as housing details such as ownership or rental status.
- The questionnaire is designed to be filled out by multiple members of the household, with instructions to repeat questions for additional members if applicable.
- The standard recode for certain categories of responses is provided to ensure consistent data entry.

There are different reasons for not wanting another child. To what extent are the following reasons important to you personally for (definitely or probably) not wanting another child?

(A) I am and my partner is too old
(B) My state of health does not allow it
(C) I already have all the children I want
(D) My partner is against it
(E) I live alone and I don’t have a steady partner
(F) My job and professional activities would not allow it
(G) I would have to give up leisure-time interests
(H) I already have enough difficulties with my present children
(I) My house is not suitable
(J) I am afraid of another pregnancy and childbirth
(K) I will not be able to take proper care of my family and household
(L) I want to maintain my present standard of living
(M) Another child would cost too much
(N) I am too concerned about the future my children will have
(O) I would not be able to enjoy life as I have so far
(P) My other child(ren) would not get enough care and attention

If you had to choose, which of these measures would you most like to see implemented by the government? (Name no more than three).
FFS MODULE 4: POPULATION POLICY ACCEPTANCE (OPTIONAL)

930* If the measures you consider desirable were introduced, would this have consequences for your personal life? Please indicate whether you agree or disagree with the following statements:

(A) It would make it easier for me to have the number of children I intend to have
(B) It would then be possible for me to have my first/next child sooner
(C) I would then reconsider the possibility of having another child
(D) I would then probably decide to have another child
(E) I definitely do not want another child
(F) These measures should be a normal part of life's necessities in any case
