

Statement by International Disability Alliance
Beijing+20 Regional Review meeting
6 – 7 November 2014

'Although recent developments, including through the Convention on the rights of persons with disabilities, how to ensure that women and girls with disabilities are included through economic and social policies, when they are neither included nor counted in data collection and are historically invisible and continuously discriminated?'