

Workshop on
"The Role of Official Statistics Supporting Evidence-based Decision Making"

10 June 2008

Venue: OECD Conference Centre, Room CC6
2, rue André-Pascal (16 arrondissement), Paris

Agenda

9.00 – 9.20 Opening Remarks (UNICEF, UNDP)

9.20 – 10.40 Evidence-based decision making: bringing official statistics, policy makers and society closer together

- Enhancing evidence-based policy making (Mr. Marco Segone, UNICEF)
- Bringing evidence and decision makers closer together: the role of official statisticians (Mr. Enrico Bisogno, UNECE)
- Measuring the progress of societies: bringing statistics to citizens (Mr. Jon Hall, OECD)
- Using disaggregated statistics for monitoring the progress of international development initiatives. the case of the 'Decade of Roma Inclusion' (Mr. Andrei Ivanov, UNDP)
- Discussion

10.40 – 11.00 Coffee break

11.00 – 12.10 Case Studies: – Evidence-based Decision Making: bringing official statistics, policy makers and society closer together

- Using monitoring data to strengthen national and local policy decisions (Mr Dragan Vukmirovic, Director, Statistical Office of the Republic of Serbia)
- How data can be instrumental to promote democratic dialogue, the case of Kazakhstan title to be confirmed (Ms Anar Meshimbayeva, Chief Statistician, Agency of Statistics of the Republic of Kazakhstan)
- New possibilities press releases can give in the Internet age (Ms Metka Zaletel, Director for Methodology and Standards, Statistical Office of the Republic of Slovenia)
- Discussion

12.10 – 12.30 Conclusions (OECD, UNECE)
