Applications for visa must be made as soon as possible to the Embassy of the Switzerland in the country in which the delegates reside, with a reference to Work Session of the Budapest Initiative on Measuring Health Status. If necessary, the UNECE secretariat can provide a letter to facilitate obtaining a visa. This can be requested from the UNECE secretariat (fax: +41 22 917 0040 or e-mail: mijidgombo.oyunjargal@unece.org)

3. Delegates should complete the registration form sent with this notice and return it to the UNECE Secretariat by 31 December 2009.

4. Before entering the Palais des Nations, delegates must collect their security badge from the Security Identification Unit, located at the visitors' entrance: Pregny Gate, 8-14 Avenue de la Paix. It is advisable to arrive here at least 60 minutes before the meeting is due to start in order to allow time to collect your badge and make your way to the meeting room. The Pregny gate is opposite the Red Cross ("CICR") building, approximately 300 metres uphill from the Nations gate, where the flags of UN member countries can be seen (refer to the map at appendix A). The Security Identification Office is open Monday to Friday from 8.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. (non-stop).

5. The following documents should be presented to the Security Office:

- Original of the registration form
- Photo ID (e.g. passport)

6. Only delegates who previously sent their registration forms to the UNECE Statistical Division will be able to obtain their entry passes.

7. Once you have your entry pass it will be possible to re-enter the Palais des Nations from either the Nations gate, or the Pregny gate.

8. For identification and security reasons, delegates are requested to wear their security badges at all times while inside the Palais des Nations.

III. PUBLIC TRANSPORT IN GENEVA

9. Geneva International Airport now offers incoming passengers a free ticket for public transport. These tickets, available from a machine in the baggage collection area, allow you to use any public transport (train, tram, bus, boat) in Geneva and surrounding areas for a period of 80 minutes. Look for the machine pictured below after collecting your luggage and before walking out through the customs area.

10. When checking-in at your hotel you should receive a free Geneva Transport Card, enabling you to use the entire Geneva public transport system free of charge throughout your stay.

Getting from the Airport into Geneva

11. The Geneva Airport is approximately four kilometres from the city centre. The train is the most efficient way to get into the city centre. Follow the signs to the airport railway station from the arrivals area. All trains leaving from the airport stop at the central Geneva-Cornavin station. The journey takes six minutes. Instructions for getting to the meeting venue from the city centre are presented below.

12. In addition to the train, there are buses from the airport to various parts of Geneva:

- United Nations / Office du Nations Unies (ONU) - Palais des Nations:
bus 5 - stop Nations
bus 28 - stop Appia
- Geneva city centre - Onex: bus 10
- Meyrin: bus 28
- Le Lignon - Lancy - Plan-les-Ouates: bus 23

13. Taxis are readily available from the airport. They are metered, so costs will vary, but the journey from the airport to the city centre will usually cost around CHF 30.

14. Tourist and public transport information is available at the Unireso information desk in the airport arrival hall after you go through customs. More information on Geneva's free public transport initiative is available from:

Transport to and from Palais des Nations

15. Geneva is a small and walkable city. It takes about 25 minutes to walk from the Cornavin train station to the Place des Nations. It will take another 5-10 minutes to walk from the Nations entrance, through the building to the meeting room.

16. There are two trams that go from the front (lake side) of the central Cornavin train station to the Place des Nations (the main square outside the Palais des Nations). The trams are numbered 13 or 15 and should be taken in the direction 'Nations', which is also the name of the last stop where you should get out.
17. Buses 5, 8, 14, 28, F, V, and Z serve the Place des Nations, and stop close to the Nations gate. Buses 8, 28, F, V and Z also stop near the Pregny Gate at the stop named Appia.
18. The closest train station to the Palais des Nations is called Secheron, which is one stop from the Cornavin station on the line to Coppet. Secheron is located near the Botanic Gardens and is not as convenient to the Palais des Nations entrances as the bus and tram stops (around 300 metres walk up to the Nations gate).
19. Further information such as itineraries, timetables and fares, is available on the site of the Transports Publics Genevois (<http://www.tpg.ch/>). A map of public transport routes is available at http://www.tpg.ch/cartographie/plans/decembre2007/tpg\_plan\_centre\_ville.pdf.
20. Taxis are expensive but generally easy to find. A taxi stand is located on Avenue de la Paix, 50 metres uphill from the Nations gate. Taxis are usually available around the clock. The following direct telephone number will ensure arrival within minutes: 022 331 41 33. Taxis may not enter the UN compound - passengers will have to disembark at the Pregny or Nations gate.

V. ACCOMMODATION

21. It is the responsibility of delegates to make their own travel and accommodation arrangements. Given the wide variety of hotels around the city, the secretariat has not made any reservations or recommendations. There is a list of hotels that provide a preferential rate for participants in United Nations meetings available at http://www.unece.org/meetings/Hotels\_pref.pdf.
22. It is imperative that hotel reservations are made as early as possible as Geneva is a busy conference venue and hotels can get booked out.
