Interregional Cooperation Project on Gender Statistics

Andres Vikat
Workshop on Gender statistics
Geneva, 17-18 March 2014
Development Account

- Capacity development programme of the United Nations Secretariat aiming at enhancing countries’ capacities in the priority areas of the United Nations Development Agenda
Project title

- Interregional cooperation to strengthen national capacities to measure progress in achieving gender equality and women’s empowerment
Expected accomplishments

- Regional framework/ set of indicators

- Strengthened institutional capacity of national statistical offices to produce gender statistics

- Strengthened institutional capacity of national statistical offices and other national institutions to utilize, analyse, disseminate and communicate gender statistics
Criteria for selecting project countries

- Information from the Global Review of Gender Statistics, such as
  - national priorities
  - expressed need
- National work plans for statistical offices
- National commitment and interest
- Existing statistical capacity
- Support from other sources
Activities

- Regional set of indicators – regional level
- National action plans
- Pilot studies
- National studies and workshops to improve decision-making processes using gender statistics
- Standardization of training curricula – regional level
- Pilot training using the standardized training curricula
- Analytical reports