Setting Priorities in the Implementation of the Recommendations from Global Assessment: Experience of Belarus

Sergey Surovets
Head of Main Office of Coordination and Development of the Statistical System

December 10 – 11, 2014, Almaty, Kazakhstan
Adapted Global Assessment in Belarus

- October 22-28, 2012 there was the first mission of international experts
- March 20-22, 2013 – the second mission
- July 2013 – AGA final report
AGA Result

- 66 recommendations for improvement of the national statistical system

Strategy for development of the government statistics of the Republic of Belarus before 2017
Improvement of Legislation on Statistics

- strengthening of a coordinating role of the government statistics authorities
- improvement of the system of government statistics producers
- transparency of all statistics production processes
- maximum transition to electronic data collection
- observance of interests balance of all parties in the sphere of government statistics
- improvement of quality of official statistical information
Introduction of Contemporary Informational Technologies (IISGS)

Subsystem of collection and processing

Subsystem of analysis and dissemination

Subsystem of accumulation and storing

Subsystem of metadata
Extension of Electronic Reporting

2012-2013
20% of forms
70% of respondents

2014
80% of forms
85% of respondents
Introduction of Process Approach (basis of GSBPM 5.0)

Processes

- Determinations of a manager for each process
- Establishment of a team of managers for process control

Observations

- Determination of an observation manager
- Establishment of a team of managers for observation control

Introduction of Process Approach (basis of GSBPM 5.0)
AGA 2013 is a starting point for large-scale improvement of the statistical production system aimed at maximum satisfaction of user needs in high quality statistical products.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!