Promoting Decent Work with Green Jobs in the Forestry Sector

KELLY SHARP, TECHNICAL SPECIALIST ON RURAL DEVELOPMENT
SECTORAL POLICIES DEPARTMENT
INTERNATIONAL LABOUR OFFICE
The ILO’s approach to the forestry sector

- Supporting the transition to the formal economy
- Promoting employment creation including through support of policies targeting green jobs and environmental protection
- Enhancing training and skills development
- Improving working conditions
- Promoting social dialogue
- Promoting ratification and effective implementation of international labour standards
The ILO’s experience to date

Portfolio of Policy Guidance Notes on the Promotion of Decent Work in the Rural Economy
Examples of the ILO’s experience

- Partnership for Action on Green Economy (PAGE) programme
- Forest certification
- Job Opportunities for Youth (JOY)
- Value chain development in wood furniture
The ILO’s partnership with UNECE/FAO

- Member of the Joint FAO/UNECE/ILO Experts Network (2004)

- Team of Specialists on Green Jobs in the Forest Sector (Joint ILO/UNECE/FAO Experts Network) (2014)

- Rovaniemi Action Plan (2014)
Thank you!

For more information, please visit www.ilo.org/sector or contact sharpk@ilo.org