Mandate and Terms of Reference
ECE/FAO Team of Specialists on Green Jobs in the Forest Sector (Joint ILO/ECE/FAO Expert Network)

Astana, Kazakhstan
September 2018
Teams of Specialists

WA1: Data, monitoring and assessment
- Monitoring Sustainable Forest Management
  - Sustainable Forest Products
  - Forest Products Statistics
  - Wood Energy

WA2: Policy dialogue & advice
- Forest Policy
- Forest Sector Outlook

WA3: Communication and outreach
- Forest Communication

WA4: Capacity-building
- Green Jobs in the Forest Sector

Implementation of the Integrated Programme of Work
Guidelines

- Duration: until Dec 2019. Renewable till 2021
- Voluntary contributions
- Methods of work
  - Work plan for two years
  - Own resources needed
  - Task oriented sub-groups may be created
  - Meetings once a year
  - English is the working language
ToS on Green Jobs in the Forest Sector

Objectives

- To contribute to the improvement of working conditions and the development of Green Jobs in the forest sector.
- To advise on employment-related issues such as needed competencies including education and training for the forest sector in the context of a green economy.
- To review forest sector workforce issues at policy, management and operational level, in order to recommend priorities and communicate their importance.
Green Jobs in the Forest Sector

FIGURE 1 The outline of green forest jobs proposed by the study

- Wood and Energy Production
- Agroforestry and Mountain Forestry
- Social and Urban Development
- Education and Research
- Health and Recreation
- Biodiversity and Ecosystem Functioning
- Forest Management, Inventory and Planning

Traditional Green Forest Jobs
New-established Green Forest Jobs
Future Green Forest Jobs
Ongoing Green Jobs Activities

- Project on “Improving the capacity of the UNECE member States to create green jobs in the forest sector” (2018 -2019)
  - Elaboration of the “Guidelines on Green Forest Jobs”;
  - Work on case studies and trends evaluation
  - Knowledge transfer workshop (Barcelona, Spain, June 2019);
Thank you!

Alicja Kacprzak
Forestry Officer
UNECE/FAO Forestry and Timber Section
Alicja.Kacprzak@fao.org