

Nature related jobs in Sweden

Fredrik Gunnarsson

Head, labour market programs

Swedish Forest Agency

- Promotes forest management according to forest policy
- Collaboration with the Labour service agency since 1950
 - Long time unemployed
 - Forest work during the 20th century
 - Measures for nature preservation and social aspects during the 21st

Syria crisis

- 163 000 refugees to Sweden 2015
- Mostly from Syria
- Sweden had to find ways to integrate those who received residence permit

Nature related jobs

- Goals:
 - Demand for labour in the green sector
 - Important tasks that are not preformed
 - A first step for those who do not earn their living

Nature related jobs

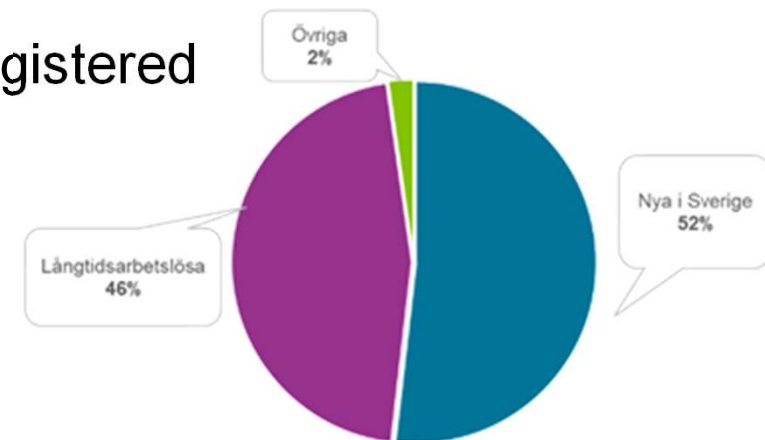

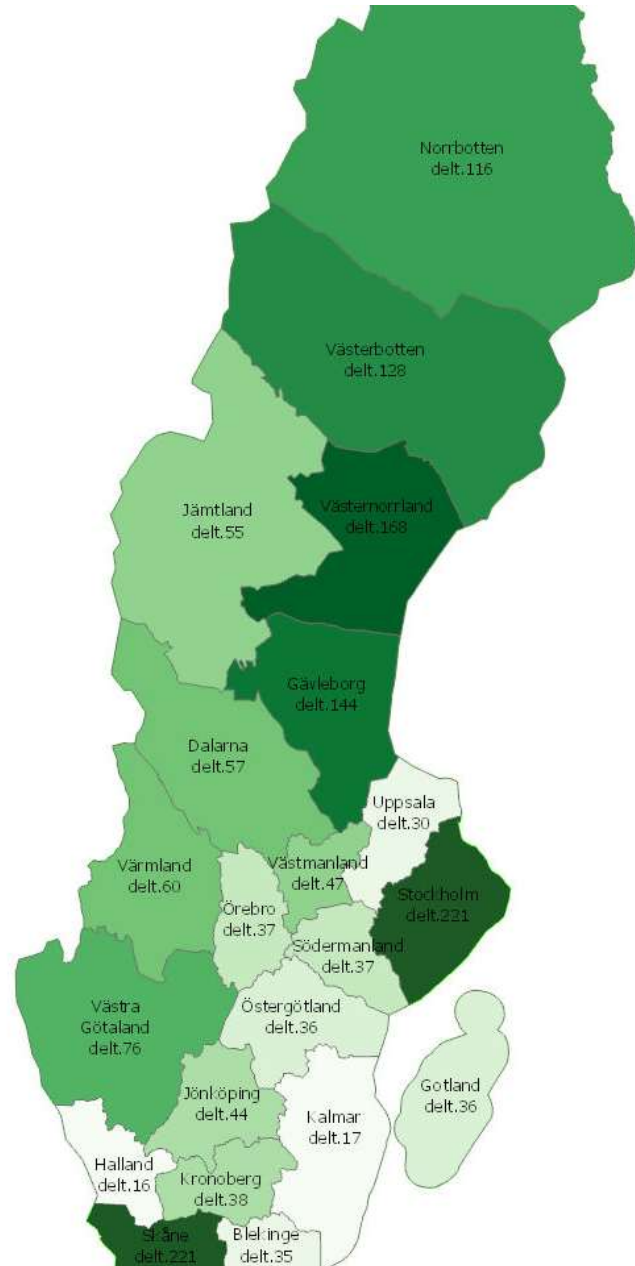

- Differences from past programs

- Government assignment
- From 900 employees a year to 5000 in 3 years
- Broader collaboration between agencies (26)
- Match employees towards labour market

Results

- Program terminated
- 1673 employees 2018
- 19% women
- 10- 60% got other jobs/
education
- 2000 tasks registered

Thank you!

