TYPE

MANUFACTURER'S No
OF THE CONTAINER

APPROVAL AUTHORITIES

Defined by national legislation:

- Customs
- Ministry of Transport
- An authorized private company

TWO PROCEDURES FOR APPROVAL

- Individually or
- By design type (series of road vehicles)

PROCEDURES FOR APPROVAL: COMMON POINTS

- Approval certificate is issued for all approved vehicles
- If the owner has changed, the certificate remains valid
- Vehicles are produced every two years for inspection and renewal of approval
- If a vehicle no longer complies with the technical regulations, it should be restored to the original condition
- If the essential features are changed, the vehicle must be re-approved

APPROVAL BY DESIGN TYPE: FEATURES

- Granted by the competent authorities of the country of construction at request of the manufacturer
- When a vehicle is exported to another country, no additional approval is required
- Holder fills in item 1 (registration No.) or, in some cases, item 8 (name and business address) on the approval certificate

APPROVAL CERTIFICATE

- Model in Annex 4
- Format A3 folded in two
- Printed in the language of the country of issue and in French or English
- Photo or diagrams may be attached (authenticated by the issuing authority). Their number is indicated under item 6
- Number of seals, if more than one, is indicated under item 5
- Original must be kept on the road vehicle

MUTUAL RECOGNITION OF APPROVAL

- Contracting Parties recognize the validity of the approval granted in other Contracting Parties
- However, they reserve the right to refuse to recognize the approval of road vehicles which do not meet the TIR technical conditions
- Contracting Parties shall avoid delaying traffic when the defects found are of minor importance and do not involve any risk of smuggling

DEFECTS AND THEIR RECTIFICATION: ENDORSEMENT

- If a major defect is found, the competent authority may either refuse the vehicle to continue or allow to do so under the necessary precautions. In any case, before a new TIR transport the defect should be rectified
- Defects are indicated under item 10 of the approval certificate, while their rectification is endorsed under item 11
- Items 10 and 11 may be filled in by different competent authorities
- Unless the endorsement in item 10 has been cancelled, the vehicle may not be used again for the TIR procedure
