1. Introduction

- Title: Common definitions and terminology in Market Surveillance
- Current version dates of 2011
- Scope: Market surveillance of non-food products
2. Why to review the document?

- Challenge of internet sales and new actors on the market to put products on the market.
- Increased market surveillance actions worldwide to counter existence of non-conform (counterfeited) products on the market.
- More advanced concepts of market surveillance needed to increase effectiveness.
- To incorporate latest changes of terms/definitions coming from basic/other standards and regulatory documents. (e.g. ISO/IEC 17000 latest DIS of 2019)
3. Objective of the document

- To provide a global, harmonized set of terms and definitions to be used as a reference when drafting regulations, standards and other documents, with respect to market surveillance of non-food products placed or made available on the market.
- To be in compliance with the WTO/TBT agreement.
- To consider international regulations and other guidance documents. (in particular new MS regulation 2019/1020/EU published on 25/6/2019)
