For the attention of Mr. O. Kervella

Subcommittee of Experts on Transport of Dangerous Goods

Dear Mr. Kervella,

We would like to bring to your attention that the following Draft International Standard, emanating from the technical committee ISO/TC 220 - Cryogenic vessels, has been distributed to ISO member bodies for enquiry:

- EN ISO / DIS 21029-1 - Cryogenic vessels -- Transportable vacuum insulated vessels of not more than 1000 l volume -- Part 1: Design, fabrication, inspection and tests

Electronic copies (available in English only) of that draft and of its explanatory report are attached.

It appears that this standardization work is of interest in connection with the activity of the SCETDG and we should be grateful if you would inform the members of that body, kindly inviting them to review this document and to submit their comments, if any, through the ISO member body in their country, no later than 2004-06-15.

Yours sincerely,
