

Promoting Data Quality in Rail Statistics: Sharing Country Practices

A workshop for the Working Party on Transport Statistics (WP.6)

Wednesday 7th June 2017, 10:00 to 13:00, Salle V, Palais des Nations, Geneva

A workshop exploring the use of administrative data sources, surveys, direct measurement and big data, with examples of challenges faced due to market liberalization

To participate please complete the registration form here: www2.unece.org/uncdb/app/ext/meeting-registration?id=z8Tgb0. It should be submitted no later than one week prior to the session. In case of difficulty, please contact the secretariat by telephone (+41 22 917 2432) or by e-mail: Yana.Brynkina@unece.org

Draft Programme

Time	Topic
10:00-10:10	Introduction, Eva Molnar: DIRECTOR, UNECE Sustainable Transport Division
10:10-10:30	Michael Scrim (Statistics Canada): Rail Data in Canada: An overview
10:30-10:50	Peter Smeets (CBS Netherlands): The Challenges to Data Collection Caused by Market Liberalisation
10:50-11:10	Sergey Filipchenko: (Joint Stock Company, Russian Federation): The organization of statistical observation of production processes on Russian Railways
11:10-11:30	Coffee
11:30-11:50	Ashley Goddard: (Office of Rail and Road, UK): Rail Statistics in the United Kingdom
11:50-12:10	Alice Favre (UIC): UIC Data Collection on Infrastructure and Train Movements
12:10-12:30	Vojtech Eksler, EU Agency for Railways: The use of vehicle and infrastructure registers, and data from the Platform of Infrastructure Managers
12:30-13:00	Questions and discussion