No.GEN/PMI/221/02/2010

17 May 2010

The Permanent Mission of India to the United Nations Office and other International Organisations in Geneva presents its compliments to the Secretary General – UN, Economic Commission for Europe, Inland Transport Committee and with reference to the Agreement concerning the establishing of global technical regulations for wheeled vehicles, equipment and parts which can be fitted and/or be used on wheeled vehicles, done at Geneva on 25 June 1998, has the honour to submit below the status report with respect to Global Technical Regulation (GTR) No. 9 on: Pedestrian Safety.

“India has prepared its Automotive Industry Standard AIS-100 on Pedestrian Safety in line with GTR 9. The technical requirements of AIS-100 have been aligned with those of GTR 9”.

“GTR 9 also provides for contracting parties to choose the scope depending upon its needs. Accordingly India has chosen a scope most suitable for its requirements.”

“The final version of this standard is available at WWW.araiindia.com”

“Test facilities needed for bringing AIS-100 into force are under establishment. The standard will be brought into force after the test facilities have been completed with appropriate lead time”.

“India will be reviewing the above plan periodically and would communicate to the Secretary-General at appropriate time regarding the adoption of this GTR No. 9 on Pedestrian Safety”.

The Permanent Mission of India to the United Nations Office and other International Organisations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Secretary General – UN, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe, Inland Transport Committee, the assurances of its highest consideration.
