

Promoting Data Quality in Inland Waterway Statistics: Sharing Country Practices

A workshop during the Working Party on Transport Statistics (WP.6)

Tuesday 12th June 2018, 10:00 to 13:00, Salle VIII, Palais des Nations, Geneva

A workshop exploring the use of administrative data sources, surveys and big data, with applications to intermodal transport and trade facilitation

To participate please complete the registration form here: <https://uncdb.unece.org/app/ext/meeting-registration?id=HeVztu> . It should be submitted no later than one week prior to the session. In case of difficulty, please contact the secretariat by telephone (+41 22 917 2432) or by e-mail: Yana.Brynkina@unece.org

Draft Programme

Time	Topic
10:00-10:10	Introduction by Francesco Dionori, Chief of UNECE Transport Networks and Logistics Section
10:10-10:20	Victoria Ivanova (Secretary, SC.3/WP.3): The Need for Good Inland Waterway Data
10:20-10:40	Peter Smeets (CBS Netherlands): producing inland waterway data in the context of intermodality
10:40-11:00	Justyna Brzezińska, Poland Statistical office: Inland Waterway Statistics Production in Poland
11:00-11:20	Norbert Kriedel, Central Commission for Navigation on the Rhine: Analysis of seaport hinterland traffic by IWW and rail, by region
11:20-11:40	Coffee
11:40-11:55	Mike Scrim, Statistics Canada: Canadian strategy for inland waterway statistics
11:55-12:10	Petr Kurenkov, Russian Federation Ministry of Transport: The challenge of measuring freight traffic over multiple modes
12:10-12:30	Nikolaos Roubanis, Eurostat: Eurostat Inland Waterway Statistics Development
12:30-12:40	Irina Smirnova, Danube Commission: Statistics collection on the Danube
12:40-13:00	Questions and discussion