II. Annotations

1. Opening of the meeting and adoption of the agenda

Timing: Tuesday 2 July, 10–10.10 a.m.

The Working Group of the Parties to the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) will be invited to adopt the agenda for its twenty-eighth meeting, as set out in the present document.¹

2. War in Ukraine and implementation of the Convention

Timing: Tuesday 2 July, 10.10–10.40 a.m.

Representatives of Ukraine will be invited to share updates on challenges facing their country in implementing the Convention due to the war launched by the Russian Federation against Ukraine and any other relevant information in that regard. Delegations may wish to make statements, as appropriate.

¹ All documentation for the meeting will be made available on a dedicated web page on the Convention's website (<https://unece.org/info/Environmental-Policy/Public-Participation/events/387372>).

3. Status of ratification

Timing: Tuesday 2 July, 10.40–10.50 a.m.

The secretariat will provide the Working Group with an overview of the status of ratification, acceptance, approval and accession with respect to the Aarhus Convention and the amendment thereto. Delegations will be invited to report on any recent or anticipated developments concerning ratification, acceptance, approval or accession with respect to those instruments. The Working Group is expected to take note of any developments.

4. Substantive issues

(a) Thematic session on access to justice

Timing: Tuesday 2 July, 10.50 a.m.–1 p.m. and 3–4 p.m.

The item will be comprised of a thematic session on access to justice (10.50 a.m.–1 p.m. and 3–3.10 p.m.) and a discussion on the future work in the next intersessional period (3.10–4 p.m.). The thematic session will be organized in the format of panel presentations, followed by a general discussion. The topics for discussion are based on decision VII/3 on promoting effective access to justice (ECE/MP.PP/2021/2/Add.1), adopted by the Convention's Meeting of the Parties at its seventh session (Geneva, 18–21 October 2021), and the key outcomes of the work of the Task Force on Access to Justice. The Working Group will be invited to focus its discussion on: (a) access to justice to challenge violations of laws relating to the environment; and (b) the role of collective redress in environmental matters. The Working Group will also consider synergies with relevant activities under other international forums and cooperation between ministries of the environment and ministries of justice. Representatives of ministries of justice, judges, other judiciary and environmental public interest lawyers will be invited to join the session. The provisional programme for the thematic session will be made available on the meeting web page in due course.

Furthermore, the Working Group is expected to consider the future activities in this area, including the priority issues for the next intersessional period.

5. Thematic session on the promotion of the principles of the Convention in international forums

Timing: Wednesday 3 July, 10 a.m.–1 p.m. and 3–3.30 p.m.

The item will be comprised of a thematic session on the promotion of the principles of the Convention in international forums (10 a.m.–1 p.m.) and a discussion on the future work in the next intersessional period (3–3.30 p.m.).

The thematic session on the promotion of the principles of the Convention in international forums will be organized in the format of panel presentations, followed by a general discussion. The topics for discussion are based on decision VII/4 on promoting the application of the principles of the Convention in international forums (ECE/MP.PP/2021/2/Add.1), adopted by the Meeting of the Parties at its seventh session, and the outcomes of the previous thematic sessions. The current session will focus on the promotion of the principles of the Convention in international forums related to: climate change and energy; carbon trading and other market-based mechanisms; and new or emerging technologies, including geoengineering. Additional topics will include: a relevant update on public participation in the work of the International Seabed Authority; stakeholder engagement in international financial institutions; stakeholder engagement and access to information policies of the United Nations Environment Programme and the United Nations Environment Assembly; and stakeholder engagement and the Sustainable Development Goal-related processes. It is expected that the issue of conflict of interest in the context of international decision-making will be addressed throughout the discussions. The provisional programme for the thematic session will be made available on the meeting web page in due course.

Furthermore, the Working Group is expected to discuss the future work in the next intersessional period.
