3 Introduction

The current practice of exchange of business documents by means of telecommunications – usually defined as e-Business presents a major opportunity to improve the competitiveness of companies, especially for Small and Medium Enterprise (SME) whatever its size can be.

About all the functions within any entity provide input to accounting entries and accounting entries in turn will provide output towards aggregated figures from accounts.

Carrying on an initiative of EDIFICAS Europe, the European Expert Group 11 (EEG11) – Accounting and auditing – started the discovery of elements for accounting entries in 2004. This task was inter alia based upon the ENTREC, CHACCO, INFENT and LEDGER Edifact messages.

The “Accounting Ledger” message is a recognized UN-Cefact standard included in CLL09B.

Ledger is fundamentally based upon the complete set of ABIEs of the “Accounting Entry”.

This first version of the Ledger Business Requirements Specification (BRS) has been presented for comments from the other regions. Comments received were considered and included when relevant.

After a period of public exposure TBG12 has drafted the final version of the BRS addressing comments received and forward for further processing through the UN/CEFACT Forum process with the goal of developing a UN/CEFACT standard Ledger document.

The purpose of this document is to define globally consistent Ledger processes for the worldwide accounting and auditing domains, using the UN/CEFACT Modelling Methodology (UMM) approach and Unified Modelling Language to describe and detail the business processes and transactions involved.

The purpose of this document is to define globally consistent accounting Ledger processes for the worldwide accounting and auditing domains, using the UN/CEFACT Modelling Methodology (UMM) approach and Unified Modelling Language to describe and detail the business processes and transactions involved.

The structure of this document is based on the structure of the UN/CEFACT Requirements Specification Mapping (RSM) document reference CEFACT/ICG/006.

4 Objective

The objective of this document is to standardize the information entities and the extraction business processes, (occasionally snippets only) of the Ledger or sub-Ledgers used by the enterprises based on the one hand:

- on the Chart of Accounts standard data model (developed in CCL10A) and on the Accounting Entry standard data model (developed in CCL09A), and on the other hand:

- on audit practice business processes and/or matching entry lines contained into customers / suppliers opposed accounts of different parties.

A Ledger is likely the natural source for migration of accounting system or for archiving accounting information.

A Ledger is an accounting document that organizes accounts' sorting of collected accounting entries with respect to a chart of accounts adopted by the entity, which is sometimes mandatorily applicable to the business sector of activity.

Originally captured into journal or sub journals, accounting entries are sequentially rearranged in chronological order into the allotted accounts in a journal. This re-ordered book is the Ledger.

A Ledger is a different view of all accounting entries booked in all journals during a period of time. It is one among the fundamental instruments for an auditor to forge his opinion on the timeliness, accuracy and completeness of the accounting process applied in an entity.

From a source document, it is possible to retrieve in the Ledger, all the booking information in the right journal on the right accounting account.

And vice versa, from an account in a Ledger, it is possible to retrieve all lines of an accounting entry up to its supporting document which may be either internal or external, such as a payroll, a spreadsheet, a provision for amortization, a provision for revenue, an invoice, a bank statement, etc. It is also possible to select (e.g. for audit purpose) lines booked into one or more selected accounts.

The Ledger standard is used for financial accounting, cost accounting, provisional or budgetary accounting, and more generally for any kind of various dimensions and numerous analytical processes. The Ledger standard is useable by entities from both public and private sectors.

The business document consists of a set of Business Information Entities (BIE), which are preferably taken from libraries of reusable business information entities, in particular those of the Accounting Entry standard. The contents of the business document and the Business Information Entities are presented using class diagrams.

4.1 Definition of terms

Terms	Definition
Account	A ranking and recording unit of entries corresponding to expenditure and receipts relating to a particular period and/or purpose. Contains either the detail of all entry lines booked into this account and/or the totals summarising debits and credits.
Accounting entry, book entry, entry	Technique that consists in recording the equal debit and credit monetary values of a transaction into suitable accounts, accounting books.
Accounting (entry) line, entry item	Is corresponding to the debit or credit amount (that is part of an accounting entry), posted on a ledger account and recorded in a journal. In addition to the amount and the account identifier, the accounting entry line must include the date of the transaction, the explanation of the entry, a reference toward the journal and the identification of the source document originating the debit or credit amount.
Bookkeeping	Activity that consists in sorting and recording into accounts the financial flow related to any transaction and economic fact occurring in an entity.
Irreversibility	The fact that an accounting entry posted into accounts and books can not be undone or altered.
Journal	Book or file in which each accounting entry is recorded chronologically prior to be carried over into the ledger book. The [central or main] journal is generally split into secondary journals dedicated to a type of transactions such as “sales invoices”, “purchase invoices”, “bank account”, “petty cash”, “wages”, “depreciations”, etc. Accounting practice regulations related to the journal process guarantee the immutability and prevent any addition or removal of accounting entry.
Recording Accounting Entry	See Accounting entry
Matching	Match mark. Action of putting a mark, a character or a string of characters vis-à-vis opposite amounts of two or more postings in an account which indicates the relation between them; e.g. the credit amount of a payment and the debit amount of the corresponding invoice. Matching describes as well the action of putting a mark in front of amounts as well as the matching process itself.

Ticking	Tick mark or check mark Action of putting a sign vis-à-vis an amount or a post in a ledger to indicate it has been verified; the sign itself. Ticking describes as well the action of putting a sign on the paper as well as the control process itself of the element Symbol used by the accounting professional to indicate the work he did comparing the figures posted into an account with those on the document justifying the entry or when he verified correctness of a calculation.
(Accounting) Voucher	Basis of the posting into account and support of evidence, the voucher is a document that attests to the reality of an operation, authenticates its conclusion, is the originator of accounting entry, and is used for audit control matters.

4.2 Target technology solution(s)

The canonical class diagram of the Ledger presented in this document should be used to generate the UN/CEFACT ebXML standard schema of the accounting Ledger in the accounting and audit domains. This RSM document together with the corresponding BRS document and the ebXML schema are intended to be the basis for the standard accounting Ledger.

5 Information payload to be implemented

Description: A message that enables the transport of selected accounting lines that are booked into accounts of the (sub-) Ledger and that contain debit and credit flows in an account.

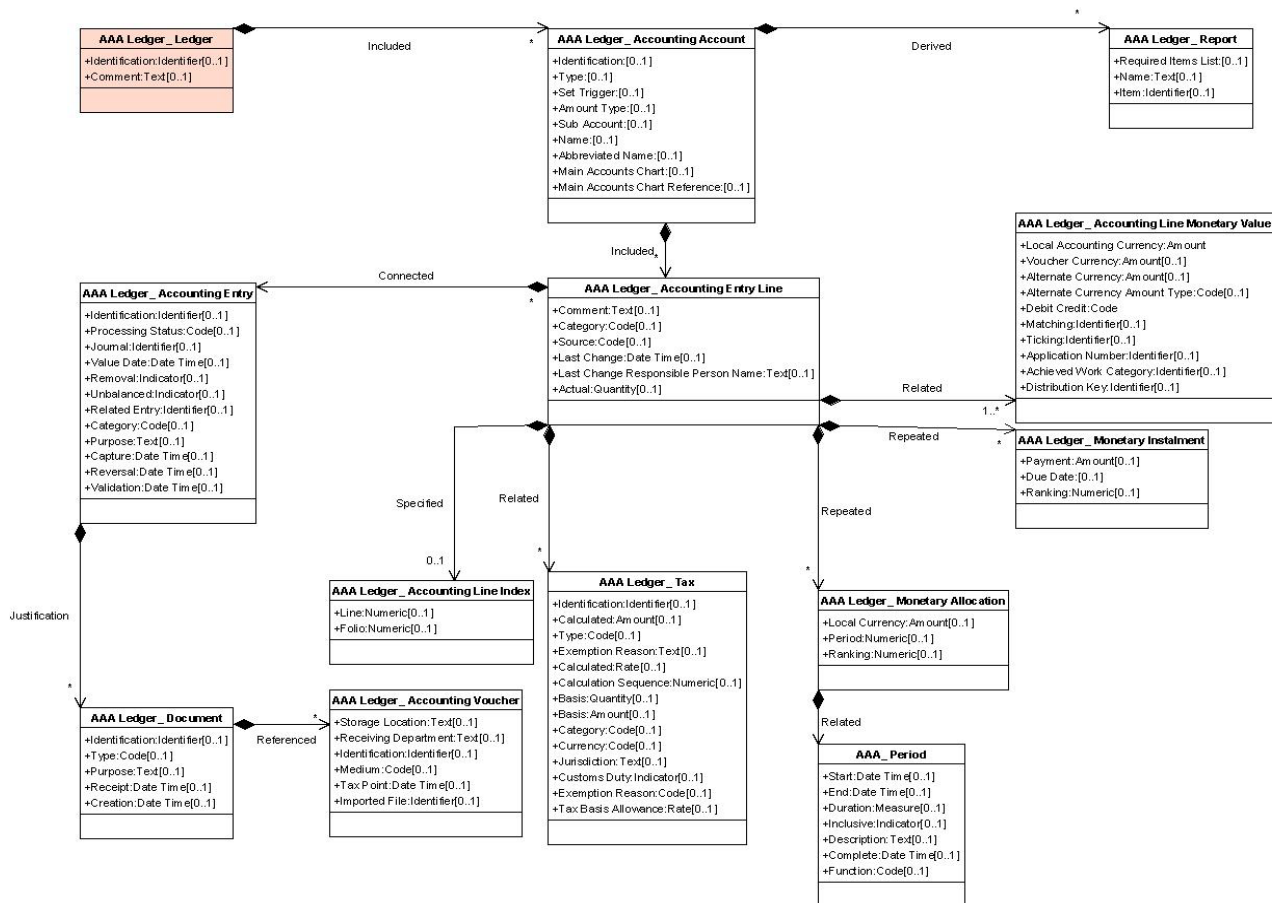

The Ledger message reproduces a package of the detailed information defined in the Accounting Entry.

The entry point of the message is the appropriate ABIE based upon ACC “Ledger. Details”

AAA Ledger_ Accounting Entry Line. Connected. AAA Ledger_ Accounting Entry	1..1	This posted accounting entry line is part of, or is connected to, one accounting entry.
AAA Ledger_ Accounting Entry. Justification. AAA Ledger_ Document	0..*	A posted accounting entry is justified by zero to several documents.
AAA Ledger_ Document. Referenced. AAA Ledger_ Accounting Voucher	0..*	An evidence document refers to zero to many accounting vouchers.

6.4 Qualified data type

The qualified data type codes lists used in the message “Accounting Entry” may be either restricted enumeration from UN-EDIFACT/UNCL maintained by UN-CEFACT, or from ISO official lists of codes, or are lists maintained by EDIFICAS EU when the code list was created for typical accounting purpose.

In the current RSM document the term “D0xx” used as part of EDIFICAS EU codes lists name belongs to the standard UN-CEFACT versioning codification scheme. Qualified data types can be downloaded from <http://www.edificas.eu/index.php/eng/Download/Code-lists>
