

CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE .....	v
INTRODUCTION .....	vii
CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS .....	ix
Chapter
I. FRAMEWORK FOR THE HOUSING SECTOR TRANSITION .....	1
A. Key figures and information about Poland .....	1
B. Demographic development .....	1
C. General economic framework .....	2
D. Real estate and land administration .....	4
E. Environmental aspects .....	5
II. EXISTING HOUSING STOCK AND HOUSING DEVELOPMENT .....	7
A. The existing housing stock .....	7
B. New housing construction .....	7
C. Housing supply .....	9
D. Forms of tenure and privatization .....	10
E. Land available for new housing construction .....	11
III. HOUSING ECONOMICS AND AFFORDABILITY .....	12
A. Investment in housing .....	12
B. Housing economics .....	13
C. Housing finance systems .....	13
D. Affordability of housing .....	15
E. Subsidies and housing allowances .....	16
F. Social housing and target groups .....	16
IV. LEGAL FRAMEWORK .....	17
A. General .....	17
B. Constitutional framework and constitutional rights .....	17
C. Developments in housing-related legislation in 1990-1996 .....	17
D. Ownership and tenure structures .....	18
E. Title registration, land register and mortgage system .....	19
F. New developments in housing-related legislation since 1996 .....	19
V. INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK .....	22
A. General .....	22
B. National institutions .....	22
C. Regional institutions .....	23
D. Local authority institutions .....	23
E. The capital city of Warsaw .....	25
F. Institutions and participants in the private sector .....	27
Annex: References .....	31

TABLES

1. Population trends .....	1
2. Main economic data .....	3
3. Annual change in total investment in selected countries in transition .....	4
4. Dwelling amenities .....	8

	Page
5. Construction of dwellings .....	9
6. Average floor space of newly constructed dwellings .....	9
7. Average construction time for multi-family housing .....	9
8. Dwellings per 1,000 inhabitants .....	9
9. Housing quantity and crowdedness in selected countries in transition around 1994 .....	10
10. Tenure structure of the housing stock .....	11
11. Investment in housing in selected countries in transition as a percentage of total investment .....	12
12. Total investment in housing as a share of GDP .....	12
13. Investment in new housing development in selected countries in transition .....	12
14. Housing construction by type of developer .....	13
15. Maximum tax deductions for private individuals, 1996 .....	13
16. State expenditures on housing .....	16
17. Recipients of housing allowances according to municipality size and tenure form .....	28
18. Share of private sector in construction output and employment .....	28
19. Composition of the building sector by type of ownership, 1996 .....	28
20. Privatization of State construction firms .....	28

FIGURES

I. Real GDP change .....	2
II. Consumer price index .....	3
III. Number of dwellings .....	7
IV. Age of the housing stock, 1994 .....	7
V. Households per occupied dwelling .....	10
VI. Residential floor space per person .....	10

Housing Economics and Affordability
A. General economic transition .....	I
B. Real estate market development .....	II
C. Residential property markets in the Federal Republic of Germany .....	III
D. Residential property markets in Poland .....	IV
E. Residential property markets in Hungary .....	V
F. Residential property markets in Bulgaria .....	VI
G. Residential property markets in Russia .....	VII
H. Residential property markets in the Czech Republic .....	VIII
I. Residential property markets in Slovakia .....	IX
J. Residential property markets in Slovenia .....	X
K. Residential property markets in the Balkans .....	XI
L. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XII
M. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XIII
N. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XIV
O. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XV
P. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XVI
Q. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XVII
R. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XVIII
S. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XIX
T. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XX
U. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XXI
V. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XXII
W. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XXIII
X. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XXIV
Y. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XXV
Z. Residential property markets in Central Europe .....	XXVI

TABLES

A. Annual changes in real gross domestic product in selected countries in transition .....	1
B. Annual changes in real gross domestic product in selected countries in transition .....	2
C. Annual changes in real gross domestic product in selected countries in transition .....	3
D. Output structure .....	4
E. Output structure .....	5
F. Output structure .....	6
G. Output structure .....	7
H. Output structure .....	8
I. Output structure .....	9
J. Output structure .....	10
K. Output structure .....	11
L. Output structure .....	12
M. Output structure .....	13
N. Output structure .....	14
O. Output structure .....	15
P. Output structure .....	16
Q. Output structure .....	17
R. Output structure .....	18
S. Output structure .....	19
T. Output structure .....	20
U. Output structure .....	21
V. Output structure .....	22
W. Output structure .....	23
X. Output structure .....	24
Y. Output structure .....	25
Z. Output structure .....	26