

Urban Public Transport Data: A UNECE workshop discussing the measurement of public transport access, production of public transport statistics, and how to address data gaps at the national and international levels.

Wednesday 12th June, Salle XXV, Palais des Nations, Geneva

10:00 – 10:20

OPENING OF THE WORKSHOP

Francesco Dionori

Chief of Transport Networks & Logistics Section – UNECE.

Alex Blackburn

Secretary of Working Party on Transport Statistics – UNECE

10:20 -10:40

Stefanie Holzwarth and Robert Ndugwa, UN-Habitat

UN-Habitat, the custodian of SDG Indicator 11.2.1, (Proportion of population that has convenient access to public transport, by sex, age and persons with disabilities.) will update on their progress in developing methodology and data production for this Tier II indicator.

10:40 -11:00

Antoine Stroh, Transports Publics Genevois

TPG, the public transport operator in the Canton of Geneva, will share their practices on data production for their bus and tram network.

11:00 -11:20

Mike Scrim, Statistics Canada

An overview of urban public transport statistics in Canada, where data collection is a provincial responsibility.

11:20-11:40

COFFEE

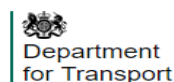

11:40-11:55

Heidrun Reuter, Federal Ministry of Transport and Infrastructure (Germany)

Results of the "Mobility in Germany" survey, finished in 2018, with presentation of modal split results of different cities and regions.

11:55-12:05

Nikesh Lad, Department for Transport (United Kingdom)

UK experiences of collating city tram and light rail data.

12:05-12:15

Peter Ottosen, Statistics Denmark

Danish data production on tram and metro statistics for different cities.

12:15 – 13:00

DISCUSSION

The floor will be open for an exchange of views on data challenges for measuring public transport access, and the practicalities of collecting tram and metro data at the international level.

To participate please complete the registration form here: <https://uncdb.unece.org/app/ext/meeting-registration?id=DodTIS>. In case of difficulty, please contact the secretariat by telephone (+41 22 917 2432) or by e-mail: Yana.Brynkina@un.org.