

Mr. Rajiv GARG

Domain Coordinator: UNCEFACT - Leading the team of experts in International Supply Chain, Orchestration – Program Development Area

Over 4 decades of Transportation, Logistics and IT Experience. Sailed as navigation officer on Ocean vessels before holding various Management positions with Shipping Lines and Agencies for over 10 Years including Sales, Vessel Operations and Line Management functions. Received Degree in Computer Science from California State University, USA. Joined Vilden Associates in 1990, helped sponsor numerous clients and Vilden systems development initiatives that were instrumental in helping the company grow and become a premier software and service provider to Maritime, Trucking, Warehouse and Freight Forwarder/NVOCC companies. Offers Logistics clients fresh approaches to business process improvement and process reengineering with creative uses of technology to achieve competitive advantages, improve staff productivity, achieve operational excellence, improve customer satisfaction, retention and acquisition, and increase profitability

During the development & implementation of US Customs 24 Hour Advance Manifest filing requirement, played a vital role in educating the industry and assisted US Customs in conducting seminars and participate as a panelist to promote the understanding of the Rule. Worked closely with Customs on testing and development of Importer Security filing (10+2) Rule, held various seminars in US and Overseas and participated in forums to enhance trades understanding of the Rule and help them to quickly comply with the Advance Manifest filing rules for USA, Canada, EU, Japan, Mexico and other countries. Mr. Garg is one of the leading authorities for assisting companies develop efficient and cost-effective solutions to comply with Government Regulations.

Thanks to Mr. Garg and his team, Vilden today provides solutions including Global eCommerce capabilities to the Transportation & Logistics companies world-wide which do business with Carriers, Terminals, Truckers, Rail, Exporters, Importers, Customs and other Government agencies.

Currently collaborates with UN/CEFACT experts to develop standards for global trade facilitation in API and blockchain. Participates in Meeting with Carriers, NVOCCs, US Customs & other government agencies, former member of CUSTOMS ELECTRONIC SYSTEMS ACTION COMMITTEE (CESAC), Trade Support Network (TSN) MMM group and Terminal Operator and Port Authority Subcommittee for EDI Standards Development (TOPAS).