

Ms. Yang WU

Deputy Manager, China Certification and Inspection Group

With years of working experience on global market access for consumer products and having in-depth knowledge of the technical regulations, standardization and conformity assessment for international trade. Currently contributing actively E-commerce standardization work in China and at international level.