UN/CEFACT Waste Management Project	8 October 2020 13.00-14.00
Handling of waste – including treatment, storage and transport – carries the risk of adverse effects to human health and the environment. Interoperability related standards help with the quick and reliable availability of detailed structured waste related information. Of particular relevance is an interoperable way of handling the results of waste (hazardousness) characterization provided by laboratories. In the meeting, we will review the status of the project and discuss next steps.	Norbert PFAFFINGER
Transboundary Movements of Waste Standard	8 October 2020 14.00-15.00
The Basel Convention sets down the obligation of the 187 parties to ensure the control of transboundary movements of hazardous and other wastes, in order to protect human health and the environment. The UN/CEFACT Transboundary Movements of Waste (TMW) standard provides the means for an interoperable electronic implementation of the control procedures. In the meeting, we will review the implementation of the TMW standard, and discuss further planned implementation steps.	Franz MOCHTY
