The event aims to give an opportunity to Non-Parties to learn more about the Water Convention, its legal and institutional framework, ask questions and raise possible concerns and thereby facilitate their participation in and contribution to the Meeting of the Parties. It will also enable them to have a discussion among themselves on common questions and challenges.