Indico registration for participants for meetings at the United Nations
Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE)
Industrial Accidents Convention

The website for registering for a United Nations official meeting is: https://indico.un.org.

Please use Firefox or Google Chrome browsers only.

All meetings organized by the UNECE Industrial Accidents Convention will be under:
All categories » Conferences » ECOSOC » UNECE » ECE/TEIA

To note, if you have used Indico to register for another United Nations official meeting, you should use your existing account to register for this meeting.
Step 1

The first step to register is to access the registration page on the Indico website. The registration page can be accessed in three ways:

1. From Indico’s main page (https://indico.un.org), click the following links: Conferences » ECOSOC » UNECE » ECE/TEIA » click on the correct meeting;
2. Follow the registration link provided on UNECE’s webpage for the meeting; or
3. Follow the registration link sent in the Secretariat’s Invitation email

The registration page looks similar to the image below:

!Registration Page Image

Step 2

On the registration page, click the Register now button (see image below). This button will only be available when registration is open.

!Register Now Button Image

The login window below will appear:
Step 3

If you are already have an Indico account, login with your username and password (and move to Step 4). To note, if you created an account to register for another United Nations official meeting, you should login and register with that account.

If you do not have an account, please click create a new account. You will be prompted to fill in the form below. Once completed, click confirm. You will receive an automated email with an Activation Link. Clicking on the activation link will take you back to the meeting registration page; login to your new account with your username and password.
Step 4

Once you are logged in, click Register and the sections in the images below will appear. All fields containing an * must be completed or require you to upload a photo. If you do not complete these fields, the system will not allow you to register. The system will also inform you of missing information or fields that need to be corrected. Complete the sections.
Step 5

Once you submit your information in Step 4, you will receive an automated email confirming receipt. Once your registration is finalized and approved, UNOG Accreditations will send you a second email confirming your Registration and an attached UN EVENT PASS (example below). You will also be able to download the pass on your Indico account.

!UN EVENT PASS Example