Rules of Procedure for the Meeting of the Conference of the Parties

I. Introduction

1. The draft rules of procedure for the meetings of the Conference of the Parties were endorsed by the open-ended group, established by the Meeting of the Signatories to prepare the first meeting of the Conference of the Parties to the Convention on the Transboundary Effects of Industrial Accidents, at its third meeting in Rome on 8–9 June 2000. The Conference of the Parties adopted the rules of procedure (CP.TEIA/2000/2) at its first meeting which took place in Brussels from 22 to 24 November 2000, and requested the UN/ECE secretariat to reissue the rules of procedure as a separate document (ECE/CP.TEIA/3). The rules of procedure were initially amended at the fourth meeting of the Conference of the Parties which took place from 15 to 17 November 2006 in Rome (ECE/CP.TEIA/15, Part I, paras. 12–13). Subsequently, the rules of procedure were amended by the ninth meeting of the Conference of the Parties which took place in Ljubljana from 28 to 30 November 2016 (ECE/CP.TEIA/32/Add.1). The present document is a revised and amended version of the draft rules of procedure (CP.TEIA/2000/2).

24. The Chairperson shall participate in the meeting in that capacity and shall not at the same time exercise the rights of a representative of a Party. In such a case, the Party concerned shall designate another representative who shall be entitled to represent it in the meeting.
Rule 20
25. In addition to exercising the powers conferred upon the Chairperson elsewhere by these rules, the Chairperson shall:

   (a) The Officers;
   (b) Representatives of other Parties.

30. At the commencement of each meeting, the members of the Bureau other than the Officers shall be elected by the Parties present at the meeting, taking into account the need for a balanced representation of the different geographical subregions of ECE and gender. They shall be eligible for re-election. Candidatures shall be communicated by the Parties to the secretariat at least eight weeks ahead of the meeting. The secretariat shall communicate the list of candidates to the Parties at the latest six weeks before the meeting.

31. The Bureau shall be chaired by the Chair of the Conference of the Parties. If the Chair is absent or is unable to complete his or her term of office or to perform his or her functions, a Vice-Chair shall act as Chair.

32. The terms of reference of the Bureau shall be established by the Conference of the Parties.
33. The Bureau of the Conference of the Parties may conduct its business in a specific language, indicated in its terms of reference.

A representative may speak in a language other than the working language if he or she provides for interpretation into the working language.

35. In case a representative of a Party or other member State or regional economic integration organization is unable to complete their term of office or to perform his or her function, the Party or other member State or regional economic integration organization may appoint another representative. 39. The subsidiary bodies of the Conference of the Parties may conduct their business in a specific language, indicated in the terms of reference of each subsidiary body.

40. In electing the members of the subsidiary bodies with a limited membership, the Conference of the Parties shall take account of the need for a balanced representation of the different geographical subregions of ECE and gender. The members of subsidiary bodies shall be eligible for re-election. Candidates shall be communicated by the Parties to the secretariat at the latest eight weeks before the meeting. The secretariat shall communicate the list of candidates to the Parties at the latest six weeks before the meeting.

41. Unless the Conference of the Parties decides otherwise, subsidiary bodies shall elect their own chair and, as required, vice-chairs at the commencement of the first meeting of the subsidiary body after a meeting of the Conference of the Parties or when at least one third of the Parties present at the meeting request it.

42. These rules of procedure shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the proceedings of subsidiary bodies. Rules 14 to 18 and paragraph 2 of rule 27 shall not apply to their proceedings.

43. In case an elected officer or member of a subsidiary body is unable to complete his or her term of office or to perform his or her functions, the Party to whom the member of the subsidiary body belongs may appoint another representative subject to notifying the chair of the respective subsidiary body and the secretariat without undue delay, and at least 14 days before the next meeting of the relevant body.

(b) Arrange for interpretation;
(c) Arrange for the translation, reproduction and distribution of the documents;
(d) Arrange for the custody and preservation of the documents in the archives of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe.

XIII. Conduct of Business

Rule 26
46. The meetings shall ordinarily be held in public. The Conference of the Parties may decide that a meeting or parts of it shall be held in private.

Rule 27
47. The Chairperson may declare a meeting open and permit debate to proceed.
48. The Conference of the Parties can make decisions only if more than half the Parties are represented.

Rule 28
49. The Chairperson shall determine the list and order of speakers at a meeting. Without prejudice to rules 29, 30, 31 and 33, the Chairperson shall call upon speakers in the order in which they indicate their wish to speak. The secretariat shall be in charge of drawing up a list of such speakers. The Chairperson may call a speaker to order if his/her remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion.
50. The Conference of the Parties may, on a proposal from the Chairperson or from any Party, limit the time allowed to each speaker and the number of times each representative may speak on a question. Before a decision is taken, two representatives may speak in favour of and two against a proposal to set such limits. When the debate is limited and a speaker exceeds the allotted time, the Chairperson shall call him/her to order without delay.
51. The Executive Secretary or his/her representative may at any meeting make either oral or written statements concerning any question under consideration.

Rule 29
52. An officer of a subsidiary body of the Conference of the Parties may be accorded precedence by the Chairperson of the Conference of the Parties for the purpose of explaining the conclusions arrived at by this body.
Rule 30
53. During the discussion of any matter, a representative may at any time raise a point of order, which shall be decided immediately by the Chairperson in accordance with these rules. A representative may appeal against the ruling of the Chairperson. The appeal shall immediately be put to the vote and the ruling shall stand unless overruled. A representative may not, in raising a point of order, speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.

Rule 31
54. Any motion calling for a decision on the competence of the Conference of the Parties to discuss any matter or to adopt a proposal or an amendment to a proposal submitted to it shall be decided on before the matter is discussed or a decision is taken on the proposal or amendment in question.

Rule 32
55. Without prejudice to paragraph 2 of this rule, proposals and amendments to proposals shall normally be presented in writing and handed to the secretariat, which shall circulate copies to the Parties. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or decided on at any meeting unless copies of it have been circulated to delegations not later than 24 hours in advance. The Chairperson may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of amendments to proposals or of procedural motions even though those amendments or motions have not been circulated or have been circulated only the same day.

56. Proposals for amending the Convention, including its annexes, shall be submitted to the secretariat at least 120 days before the meeting at which they are proposed for adoption so that the secretariat can communicate them to the Parties at least 90 days before the meeting, in accordance with article 26, paragraph 2, of the Convention.

Rule 33
57. Subject to rule 30, the following motions shall have precedence, in the order indicated below, over all other proposals or motions:

(a) To suspend the meeting;
(b) To adjourn the meeting;
(c) To adjourn debate on a question under discussion;
(d) For closure of the debate on a question under discussion.

58. Permission to speak on a motion falling within (a) to (d) above shall be granted only to the proposer and, in addition, to one speaker in favour of and two against the motion, after which it shall immediately be put to the vote.

Rule 34
59. A proposal or motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has begun, provided that the proposal or motion has not been amended. A proposal or motion that is withdrawn may be reintroduced by any other Party.

Rule 35
60. When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same meeting, unless the Conference of the Parties decides in favour of reconsideration by a two-thirds majority of the Parties present and voting. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter, after which it shall immediately be put to the vote.

XIV. Decision-Making

Rule 36
61. The Conference of the Parties shall make every effort to reach its decisions by consensus.

62. If all efforts at consensus have been exhausted and no agreement reached, the Chairperson may, as a last resort, put the matter to the vote.

Rule 37
63. If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Conference of the Parties shall decide on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted, unless it decides otherwise. The Conference of the Parties may decide whether or not to take a decision on the next proposal.

Rule 38
64. Any representative may request that any part of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal be decided on separately. If objection is made to the request for division, the Chairperson shall permit two representatives to speak, one in favour of and the other against the motion, after which a decision shall be taken immediately.

Rule 39
65. If the motion referred to in rule 38 is adopted, those parts of a proposal or of an amendment to a proposal that have been approved shall then be decided on as a whole. If all the operative parts of a proposal or amendment have been rejected, the proposal or amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Rule 40
66. A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from, or revises that proposal. The Conference of the Parties shall decide on an amendment before it decides on the proposal to which that amendment relates.

Rule 41
67. If two or more amendments to a proposal are moved, the Conference of the Parties shall first decide on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom, and so on, until all amendments have been decided on.

XV. Voting

Rule 42
68. When a matter is put to the vote, the decisions — except for amendments to the Convention and its annexes, and to these rules of procedure — shall be taken:

(a) By a simple majority of the Parties present and voting on procedural matters; and
(b) By a three-fourths majority of the Parties present and voting on substantive matters.

69. If the question arises whether a matter is one of a procedural or substantive nature, the Chairperson shall rule on it. An appeal against this ruling shall immediately be put to the vote and the Chairperson’s ruling shall stand unless overruled by a simple majority of the Parties present and voting.

70. Except as provided for in paragraph 4 of this rule, each Party shall have one vote.

71. Regional economic integration organizations shall, in matters within their competence, exercise their right to vote with a number of votes equal to the number of their member States that are Parties. Such organizations shall not exercise their right to vote if their member States exercise theirs, and vice versa.

72. “Parties present and voting” means Parties present and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Parties abstaining from voting shall be considered as not voting.

Rule 43

73. Except for elections, voting shall normally be by show of hands. A roll call shall be taken if one is requested by any Party. It shall be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the Parties present at the meeting beginning with the Party whose name is drawn by lots by the Chairperson. However, if at any time a Party requests a secret ballot, that shall be the method of voting on the issue in question.

Rule 44

74. The voting of each Party participating in a vote by roll call shall be recorded in the report of the meeting.

Rule 45

75. After the Chairperson has announced the beginning of voting, no representative shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of voting. The Chairperson may permit the Parties to explain their votes, either before or after the voting, and may limit the time allowed for such explanations.

Rule 46

76. In the absence of consensus, elections shall be decided by means of a secret ballot.

XVI. Official Languages

Rule 47

77. The official languages of the Conference of the Parties shall be English, French and Russian.

Rule 48

78. Statements made during meetings in an official language shall be interpreted into the other official languages.

79. A representative may speak in a language other than an official language if he/she provides for interpretation into one of the official languages.
Rule 49
80. Official documents of the Conference of the Parties shall be drawn up in one of the official languages and translated into the other official languages.

XVII. Amendments to the Rules of Procedure

Rule 50
81. Amendments to these rules of procedure shall be adopted by consensus of the Conference of the Parties.

XVIII. Overriding Authority of the Convention

Rule 51
82. In the event of a conflict between any provision of these rules and any provision of the Convention, the provision of the Convention shall prevail.
