Right to information. Right to life

THE REASON:
Nothing undermines development like a disaster DRR is a central part of sustainable development. Decades of progress and development may be lost in a few minutes due to the occurrence of natural or man-made hazards.

Risk is everyone’s business
Every $1 invested in risk reduction and prevention can save anywhere up to $15 in post-disaster recovery.

The policy framework
- The UNDRR is the focal point of the United Nations system for disaster risk reduction supporting countries and societies in its implementation, monitoring and review of progress.
- The Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015-2030 is the global roadmap for reducing human and economic loss as a direct result of disasters.
What are we doing to ensure the right to information?

UNDRR does the following:

1. Ensuring accurate data and analysis
   - Sendai Framework Monitor
   - DESINVENTAR
   - Global Risk Assessment Report
   - Words Into Action

2. Ensuring information is available
   - World Broadcasting Union
   - DIRAJ

3. Ensuring we contribute to effective partnerships
   - CREWS
   - REAP
   - GADRESS
