Dear Mr. Alge, dear Ms. Kern,

Re: Communication to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee concerning compliance by the Czech Republic regarding public participation and access to justice in connection with the life-time extension of Dukovany Nuclear Power Plant (ACCC/C/2016/143)

On 31 October 2016, the secretariat of the Convention on Access to Information, Public Participation in Decision-making and Access to Justice in Environmental Matters (Aarhus Convention) received from you the above communication addressed to the Compliance Committee of the Convention. The communication concerns compliance by the Czech Republic with Convention's provisions on public participation and access to justice in connection with the lifetime extension of the Dukovany nuclear power plant and the national legal framework more generally. The communication was submitted in accordance with the provisions of chapter VI of the annex to decision I/7 of the Meeting of the Parties.

The communication has been registered under the symbol ACCC/C/2016/143, which you are invited to cite in future correspondence on the matter. The main documentation relating to the communication is available on the Committee's web site at: <http://www.unece.org/env/pp/pubcom.html>.

The Compliance Committee, having considered the admissibility of the communication at its fifty-fifth meeting (6-9 December 2016), has on a preliminary basis determined it to be admissible in accordance with paragraph 20 of the annex to decision I/7. A copy of the preliminary determination on admissibility is attached. Please note, however, that the Committee has not reached any conclusions with respect to the compliance issues referred to in the communication.

Please do not hesitate to contact the secretariat if you require any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Fiona Marshall
Secretary to the Aarhus Convention Compliance Committee
