

Farm Household and Business Establishment Income Dichotomy

James D. Johnson
Mitchell J. Morehart
Ashok K. Mishra
Philip N. Fulton

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Economic Research Service

Figure 1. Farming's Contribution to the National Economy

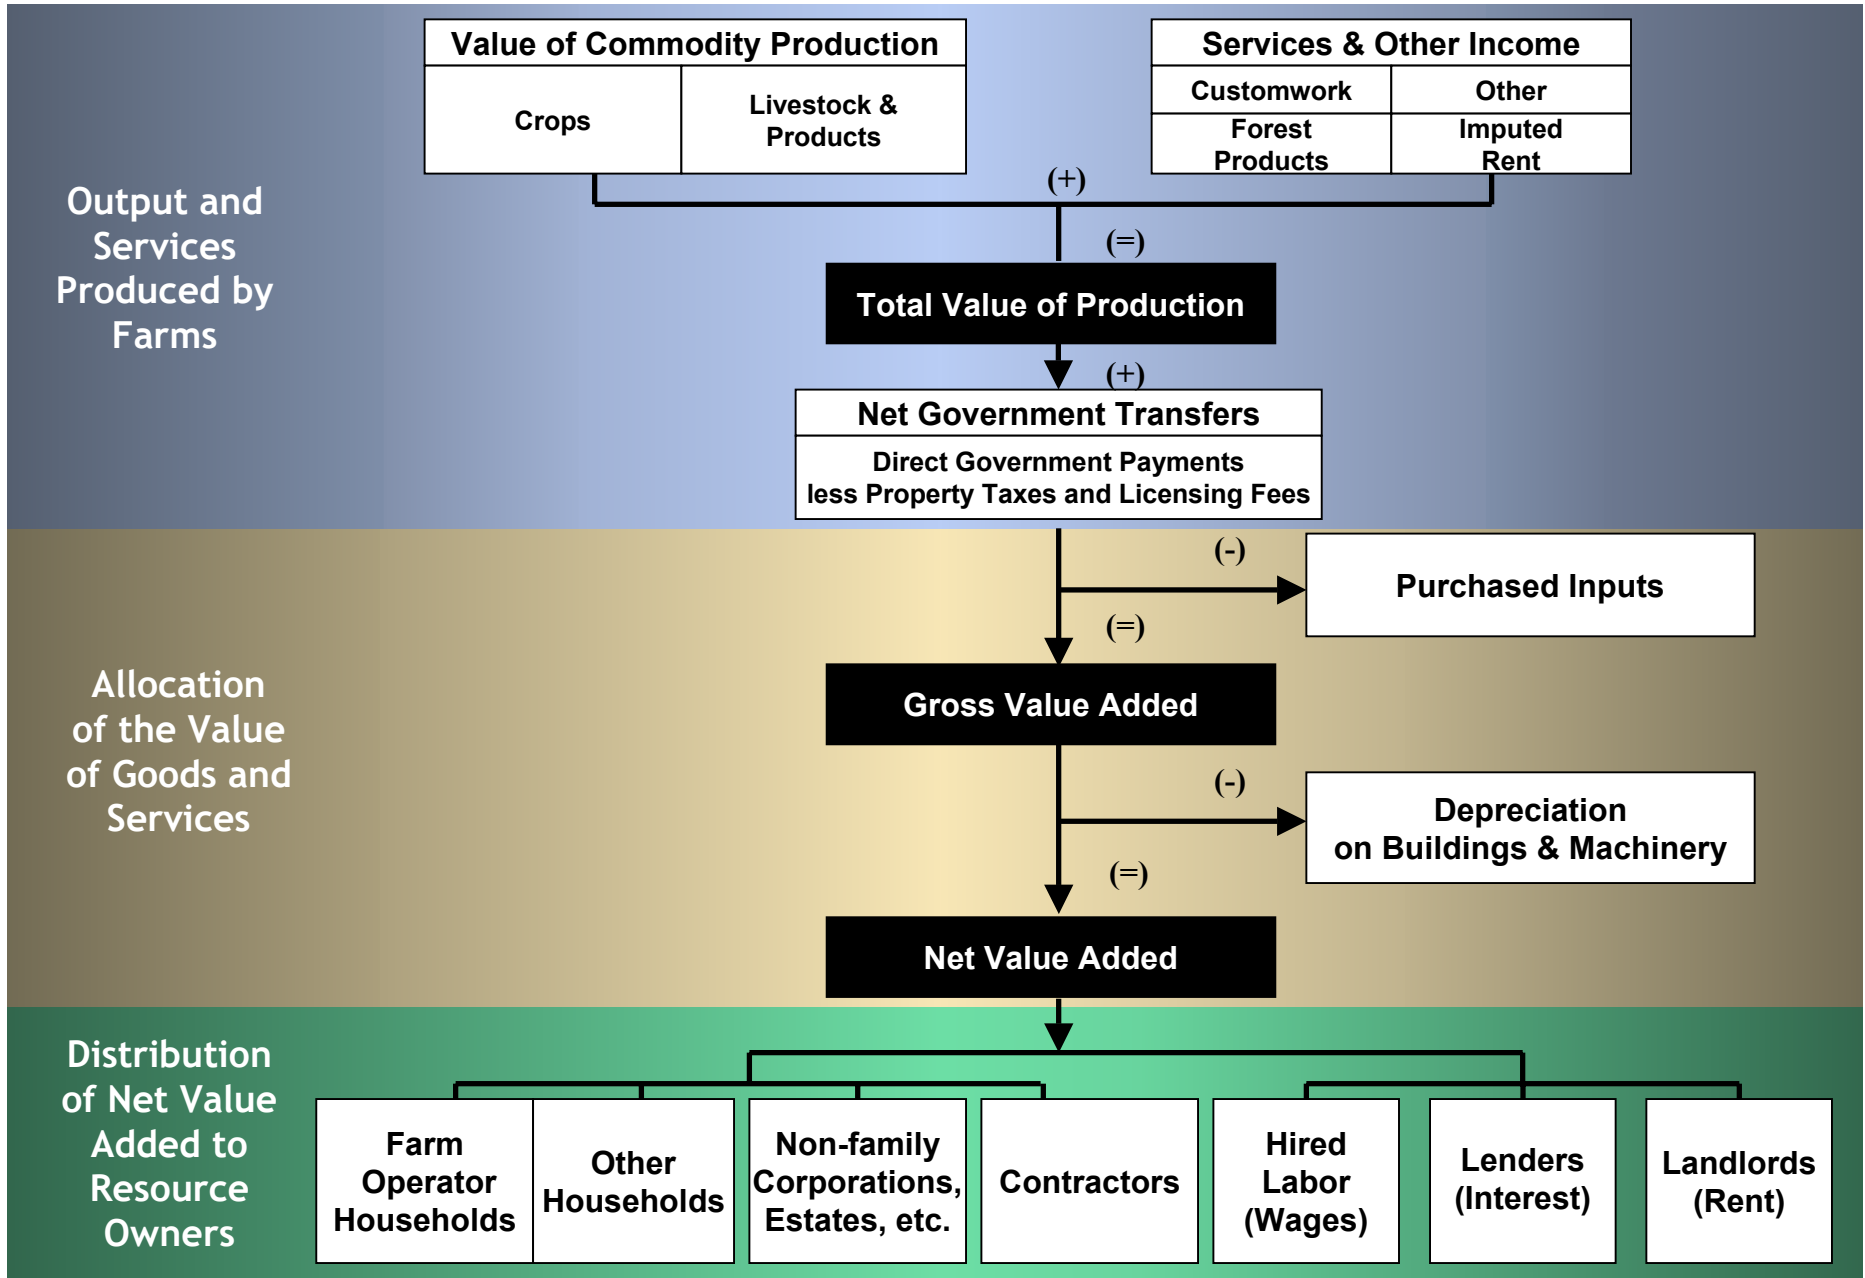

Figure 2. Conceptualization of a Modern Farm-Household

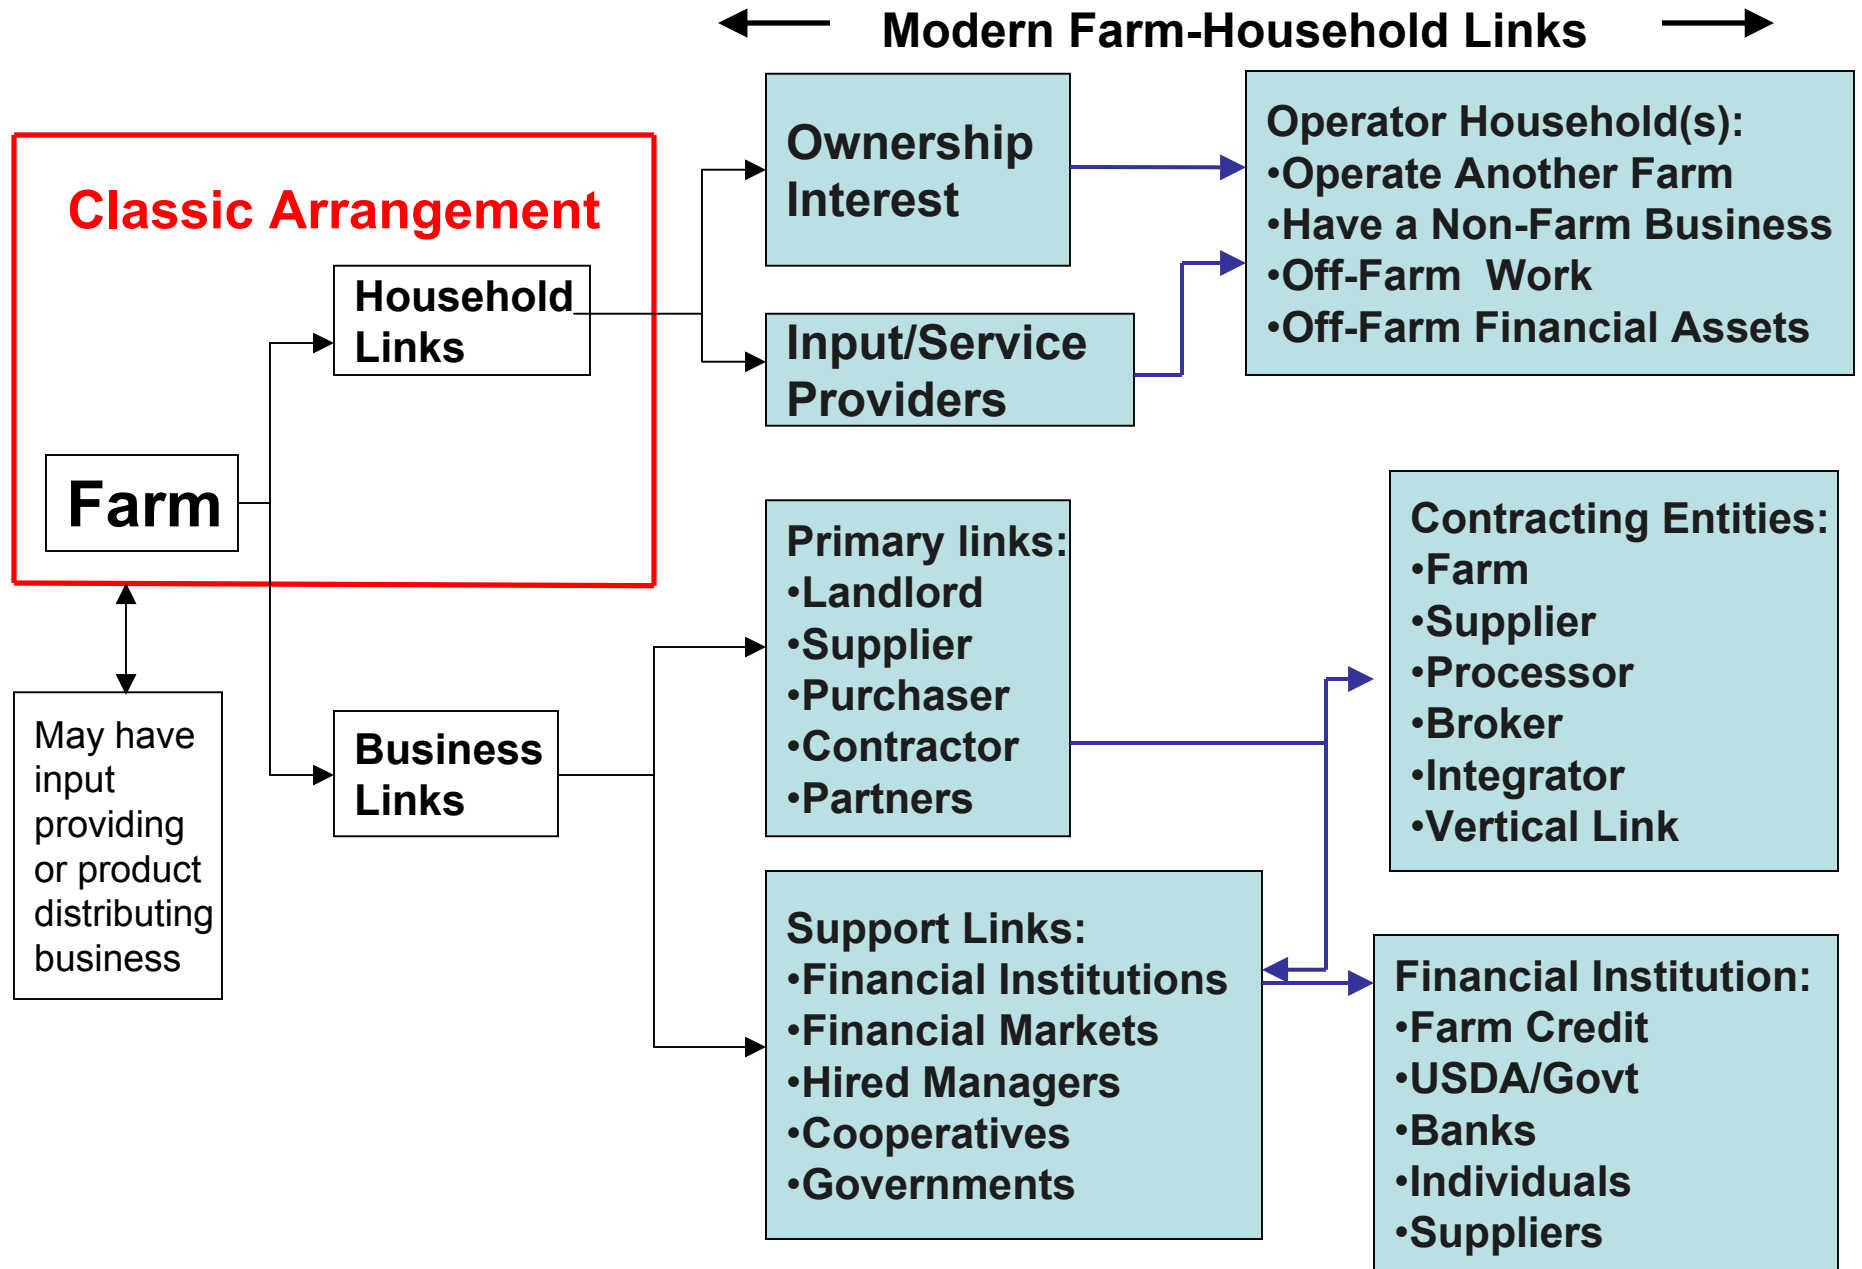

Figure 3. Disconnect Between Number of Farms, Complexity of Organization, and Share of Value of Production

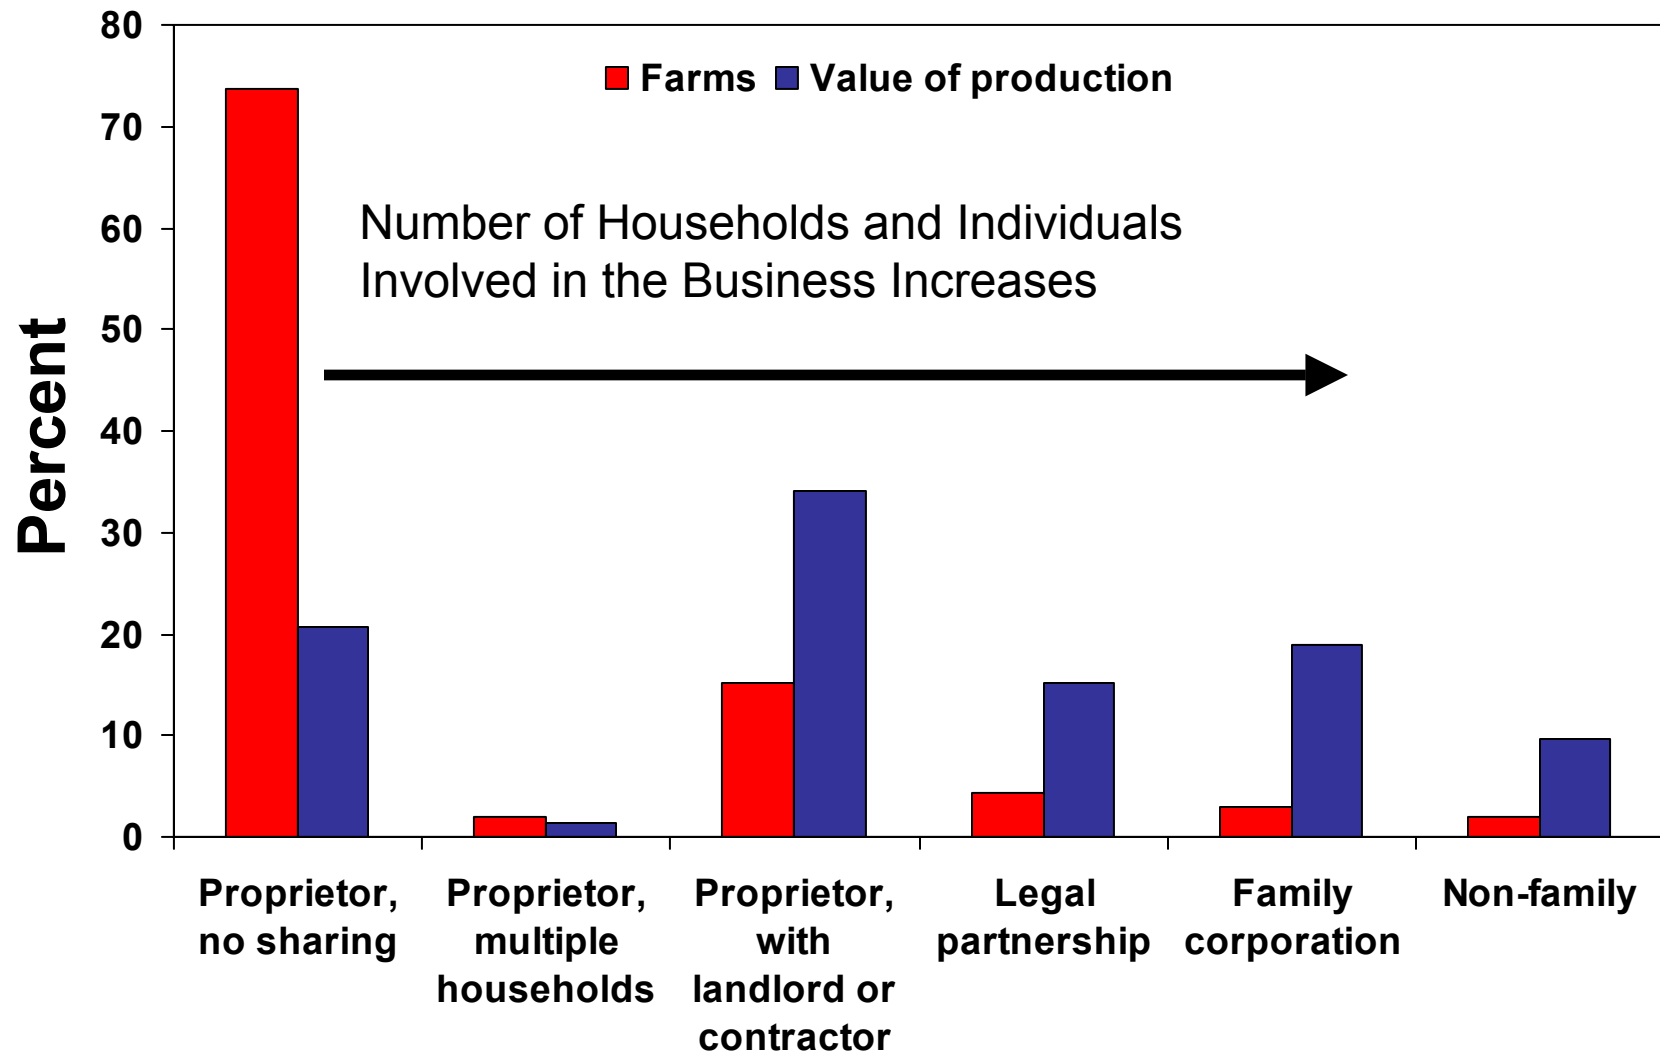

Figure 4. Household Resource Allocation and Income Flows

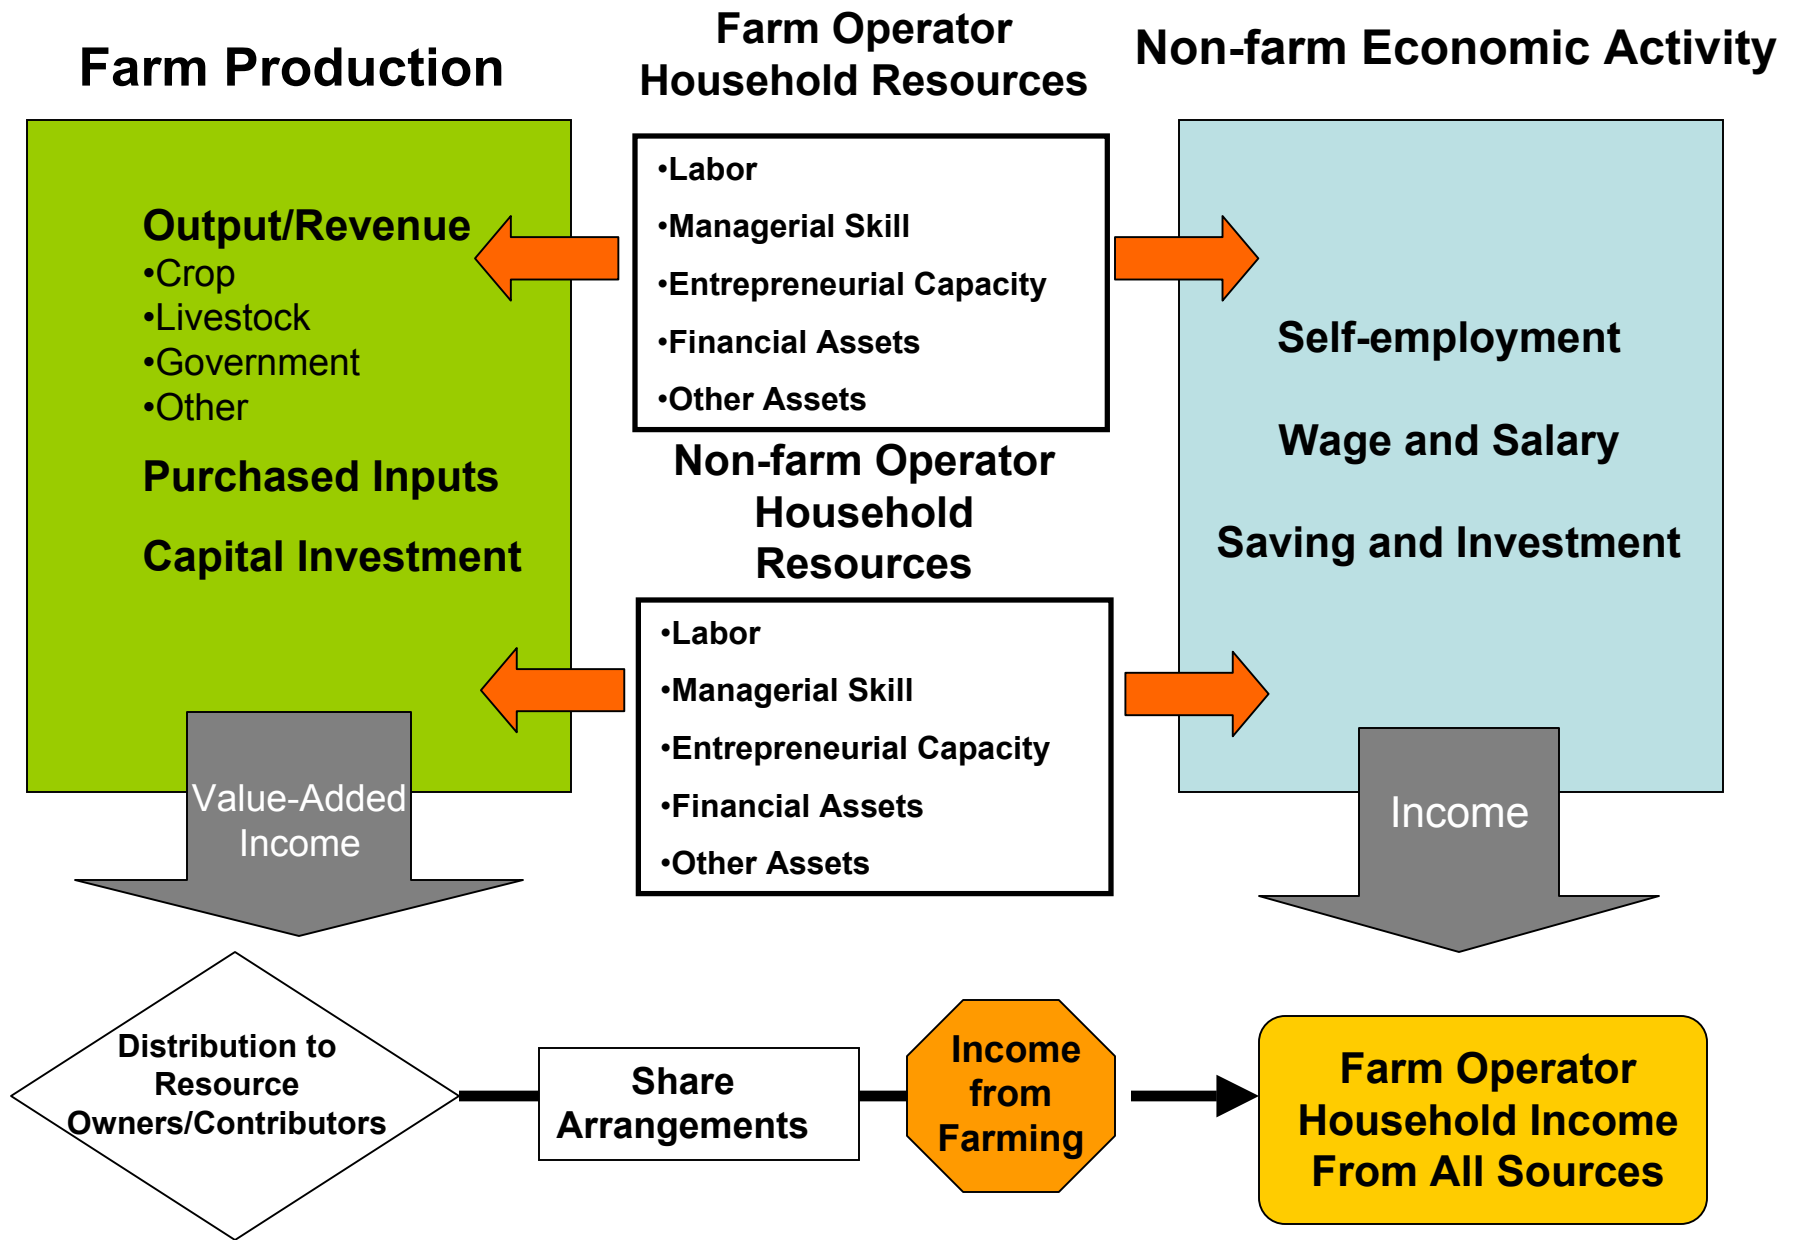

Figure 5. High-Cost Corn Producers May also Operate High Net Income Farms

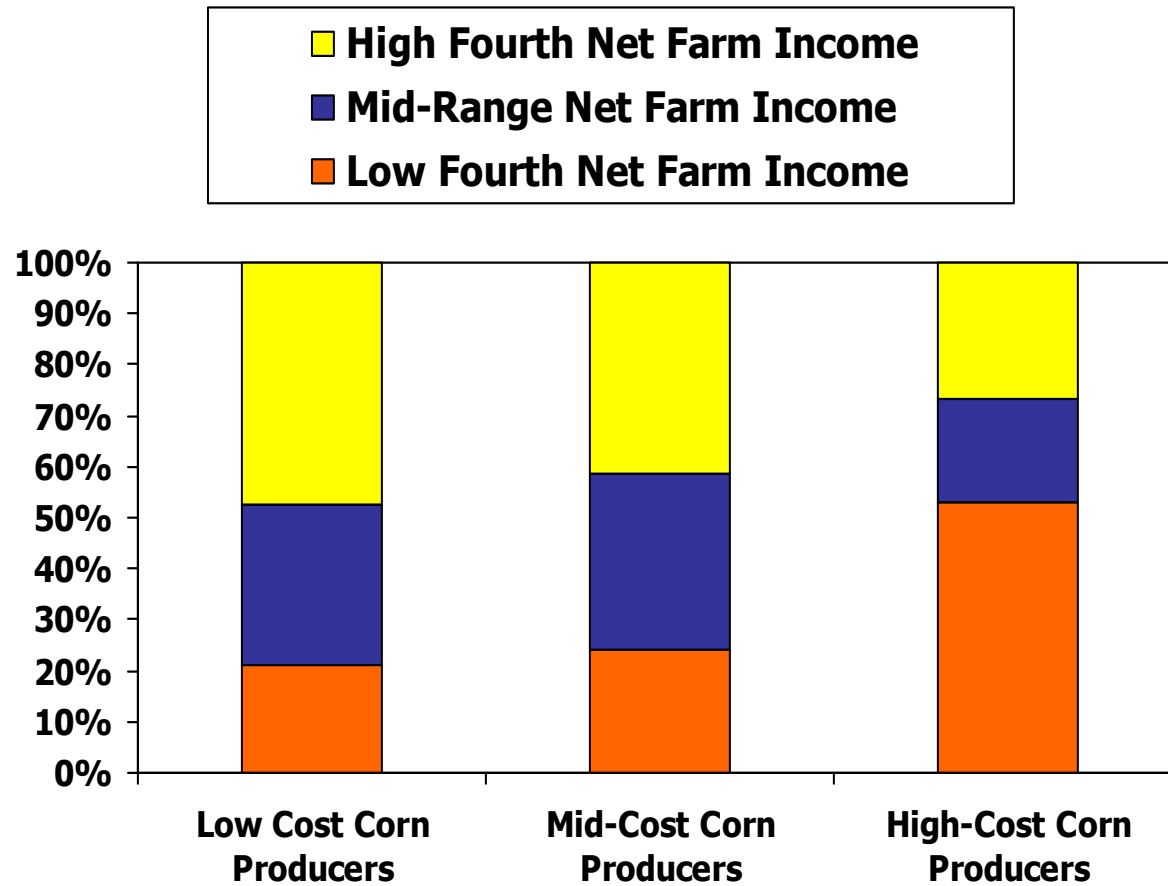

Figure 6. Livelihood Choice of Farm Operators

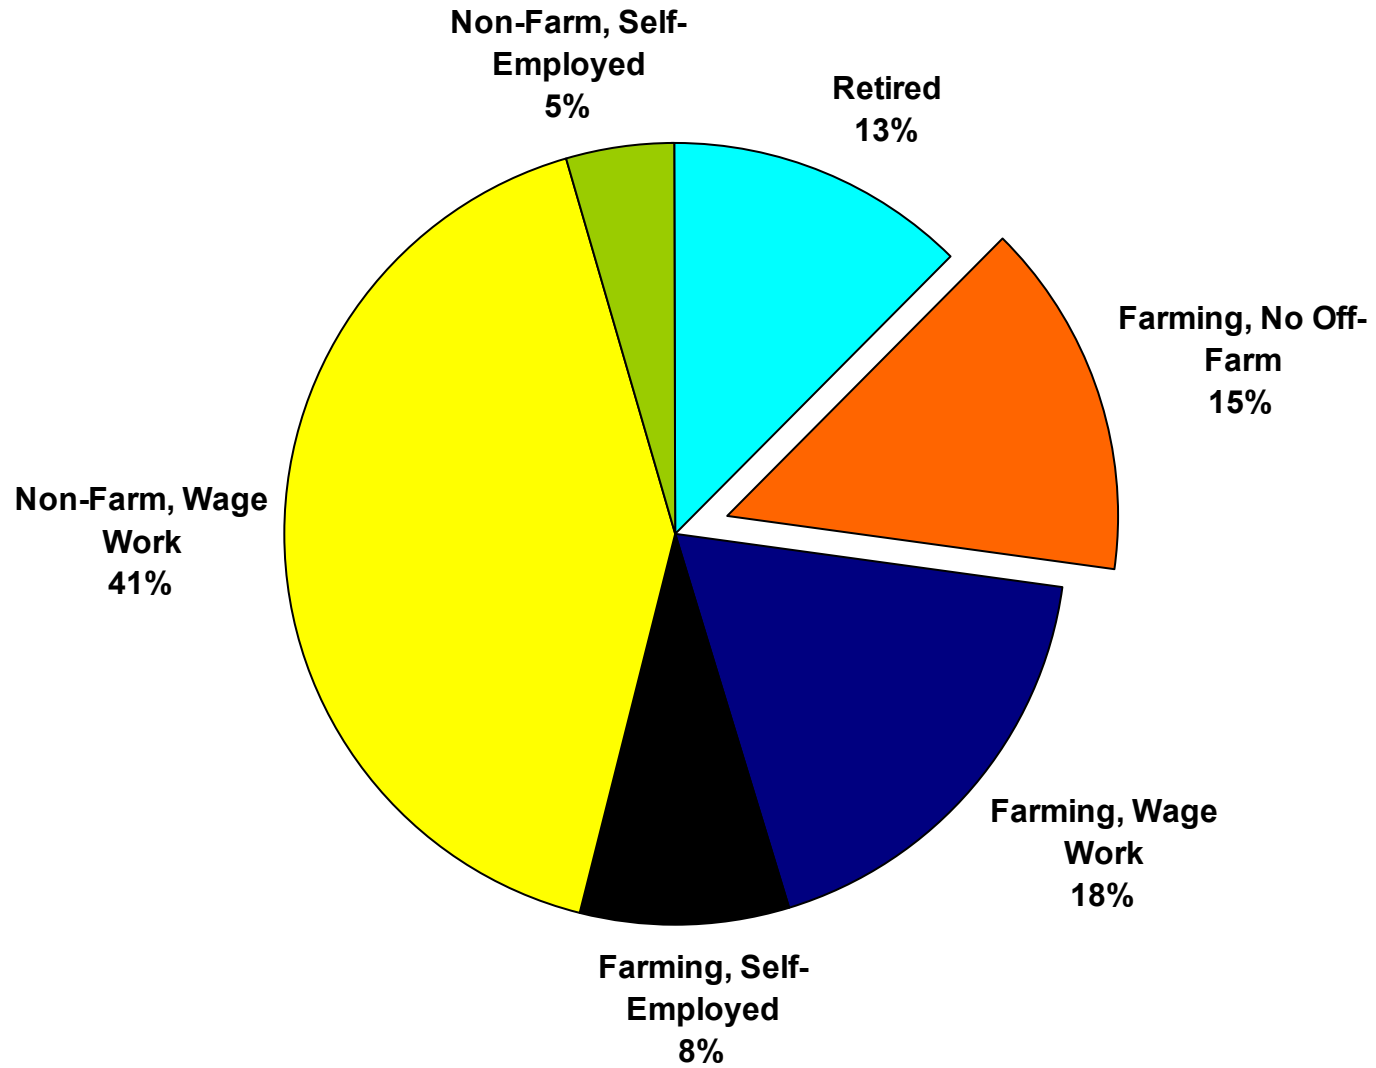

Figure 7. Farm Operators Reporting Off-Farm Work, 1930-97

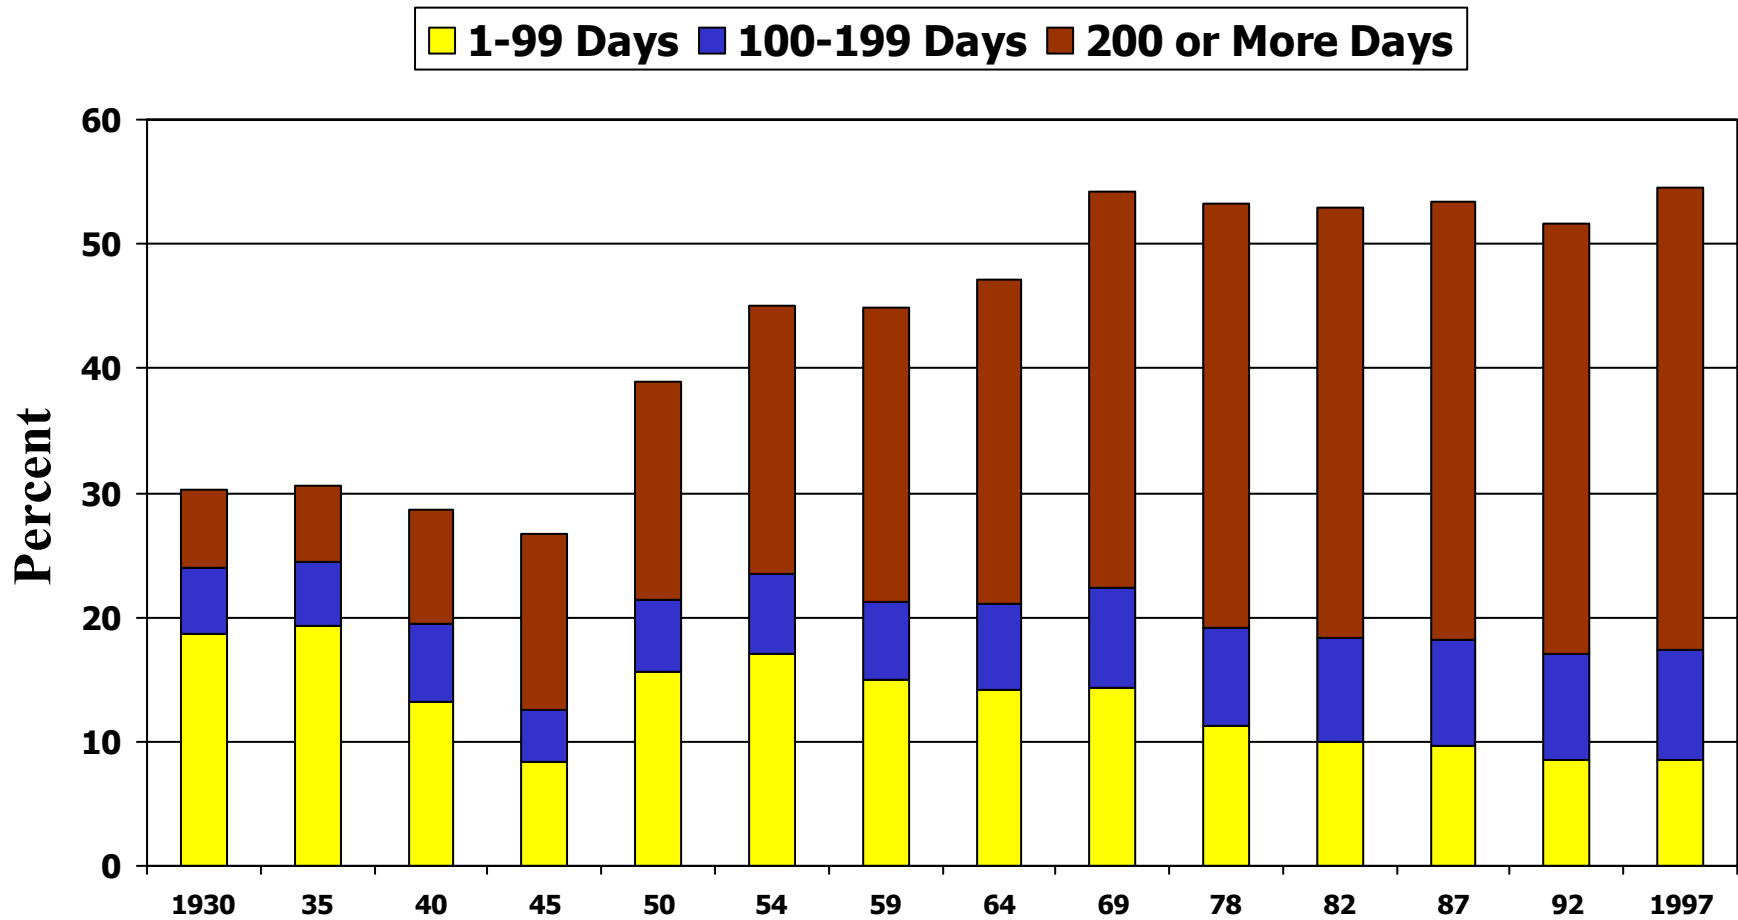

Figure 8. Off-Farm Work Experience of Farm Operators and Spouses, 1978 and 2001

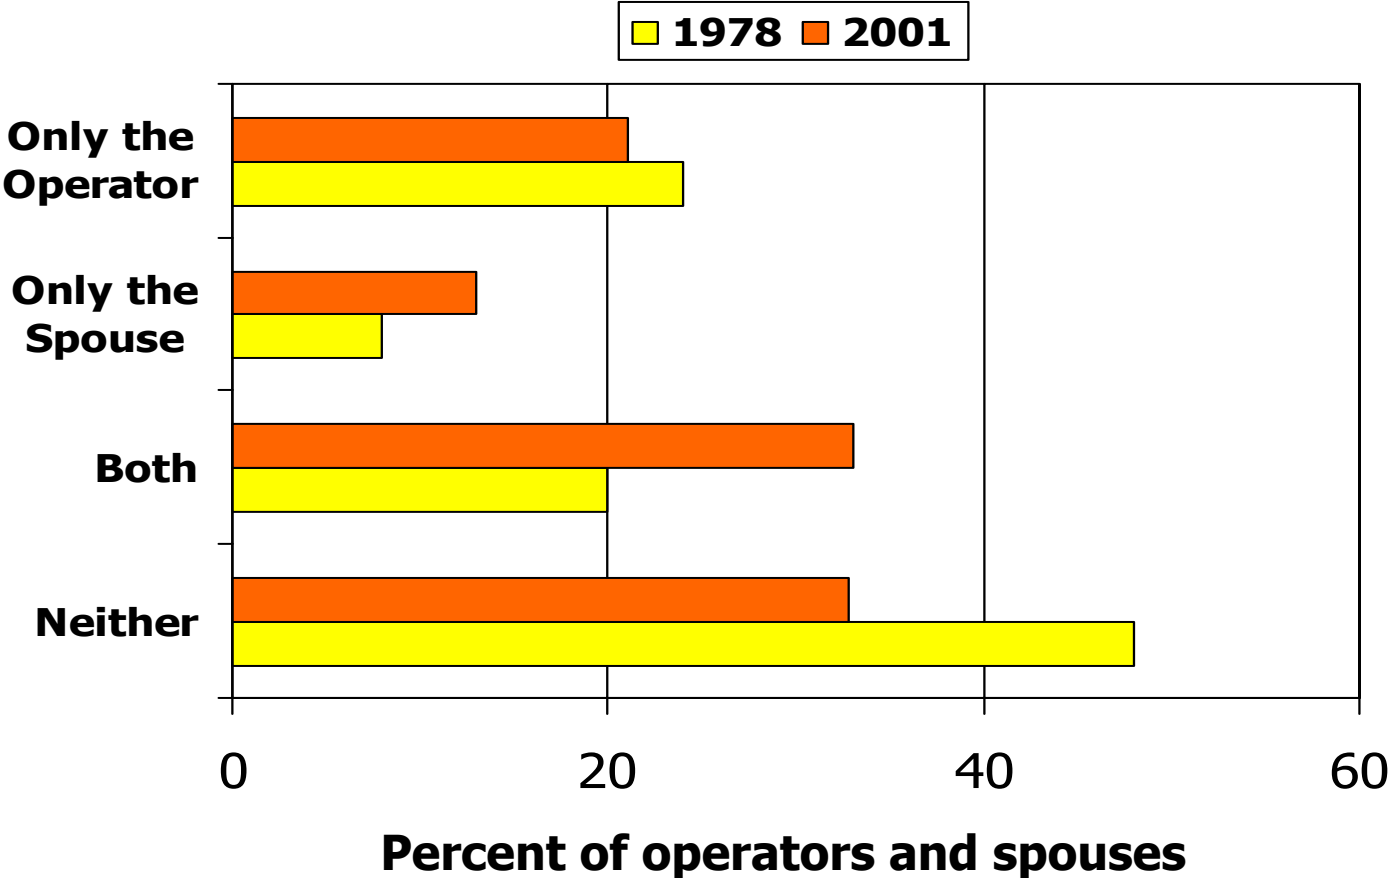

Figure 9. Farm Operator and Spouse Career Choice

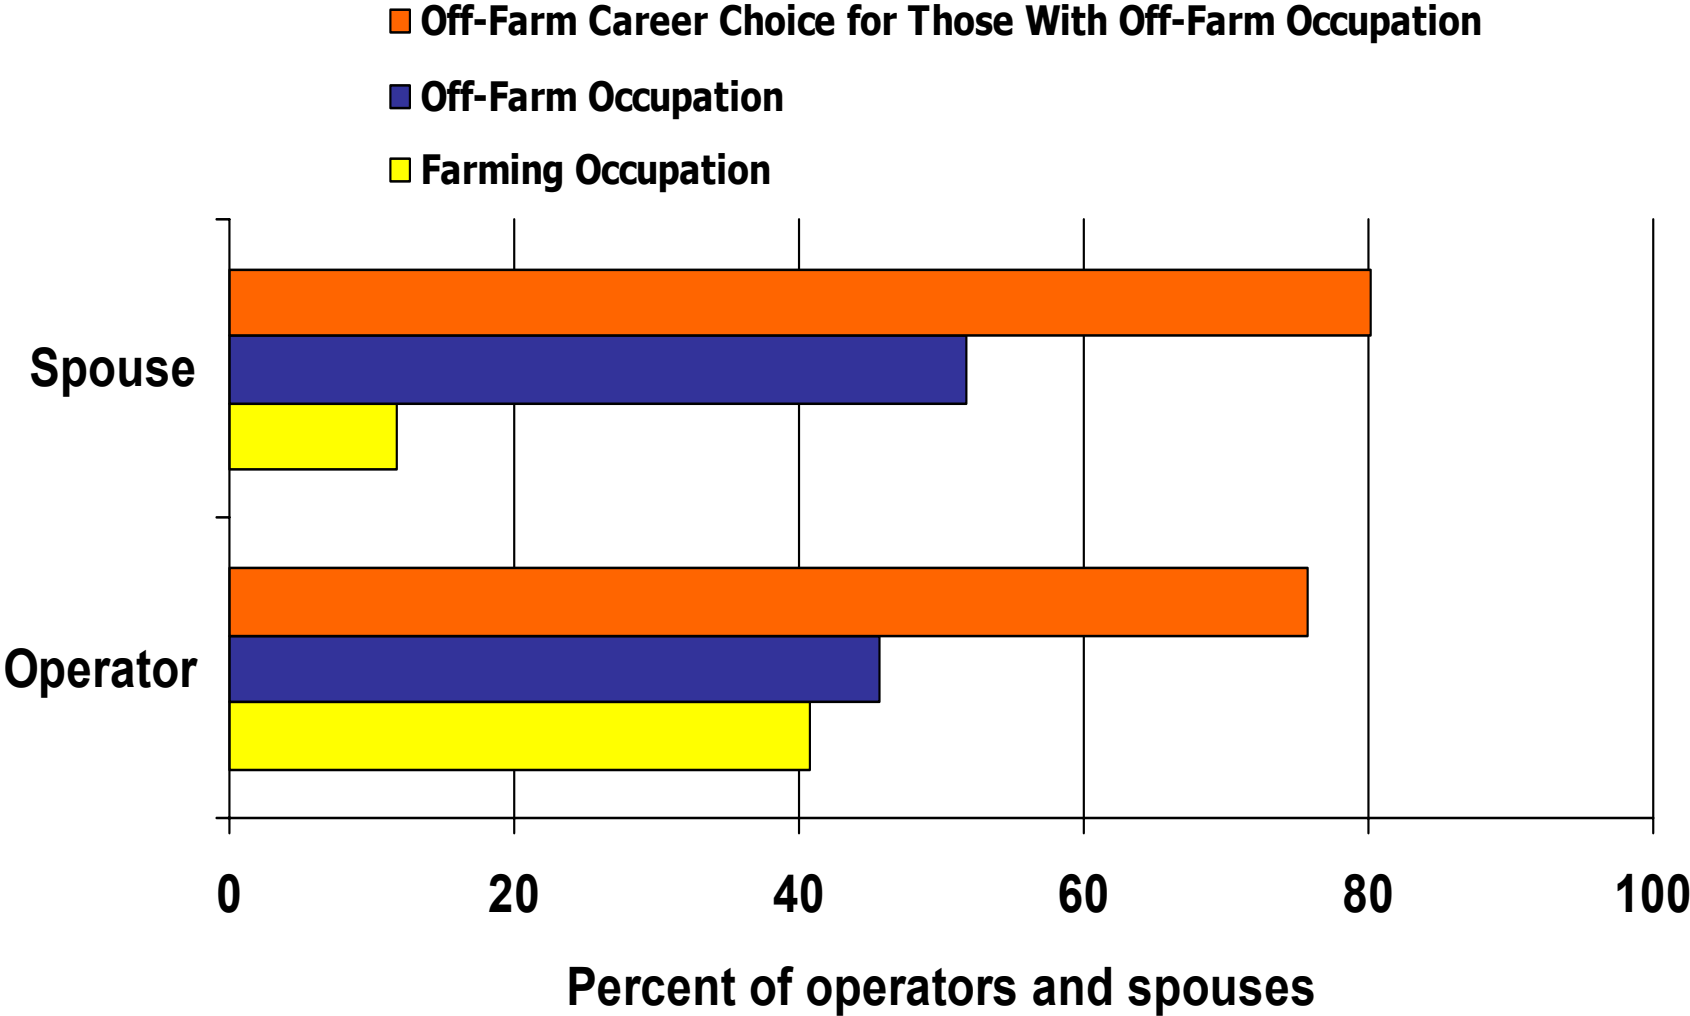

Figure 10. Choice of Primary Occupation for Operators and Spouses by Organization of Farm

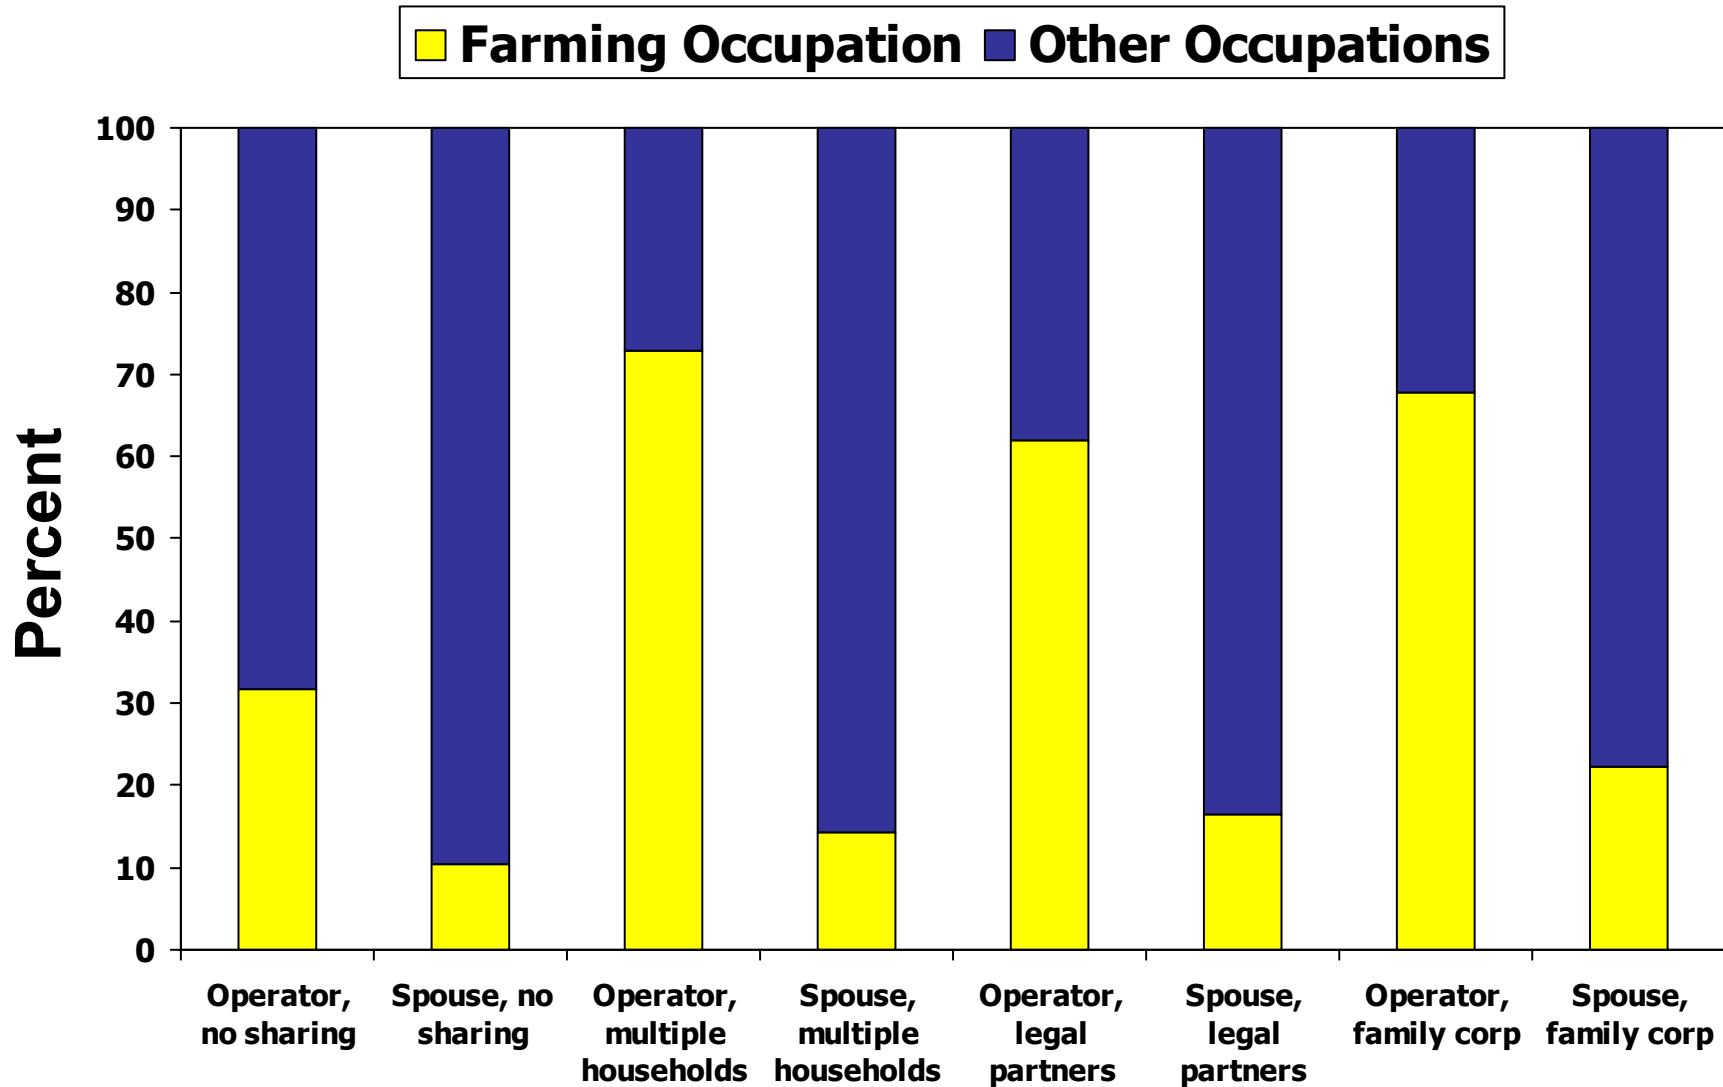

Figure 11. Operators and Spouses that Worked Off-Farm Prior to Farming, by Size of Farm Business

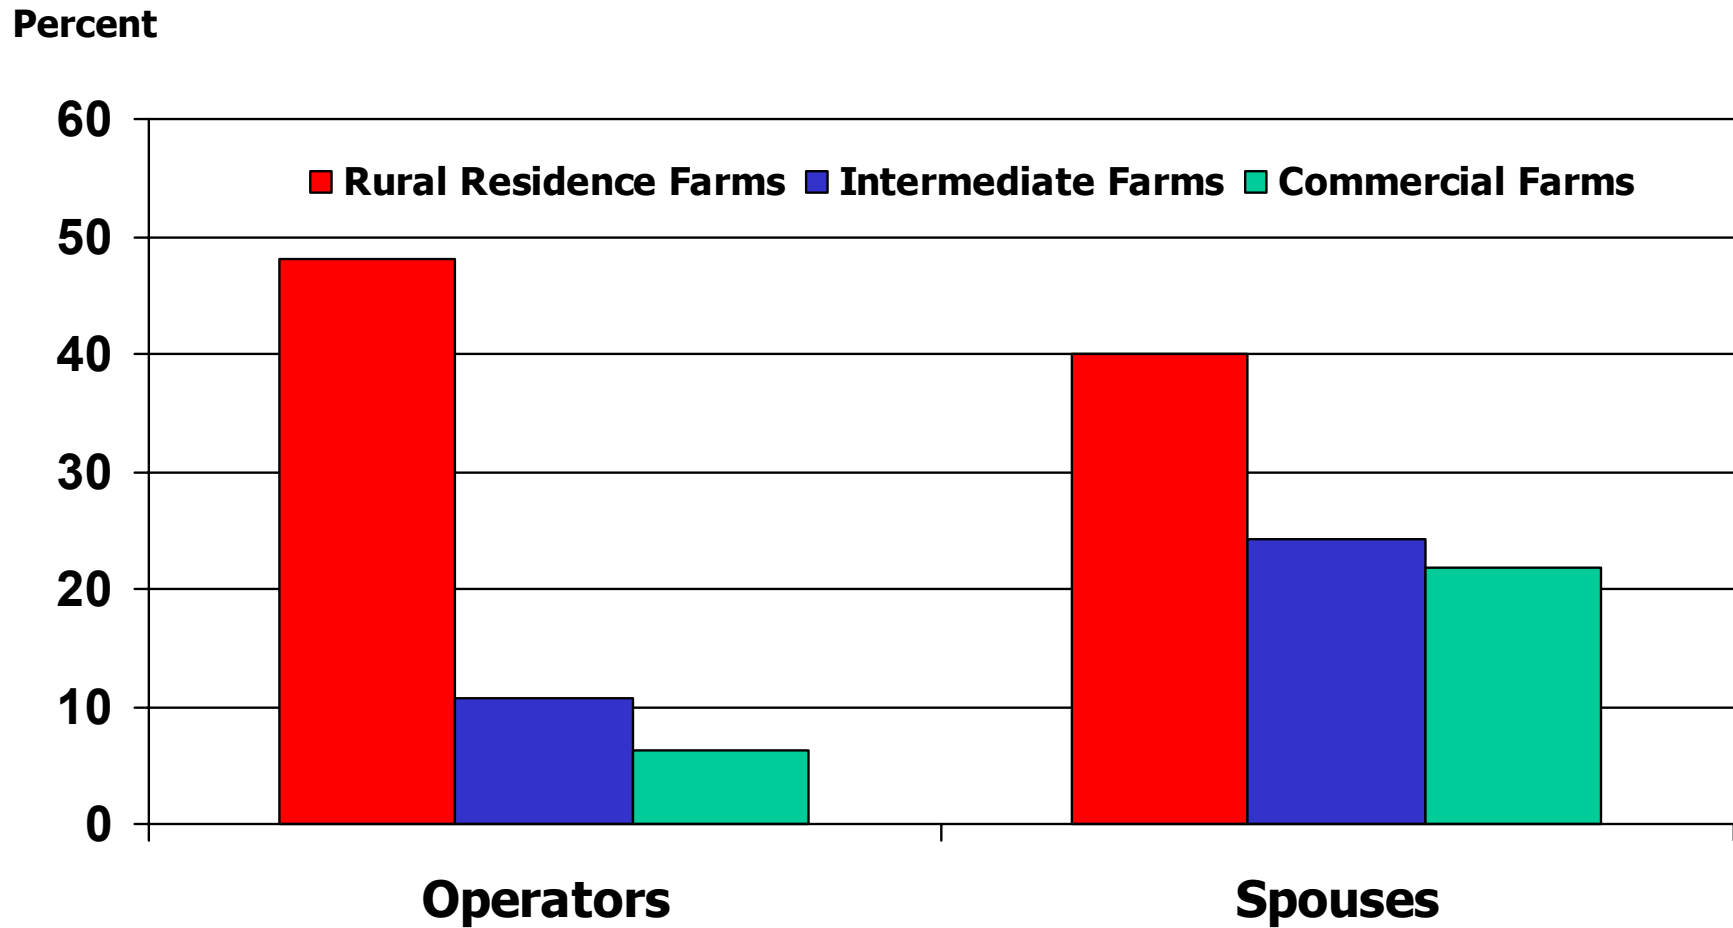

Figure 12. Primary Reasons Given For Work Off-Farm

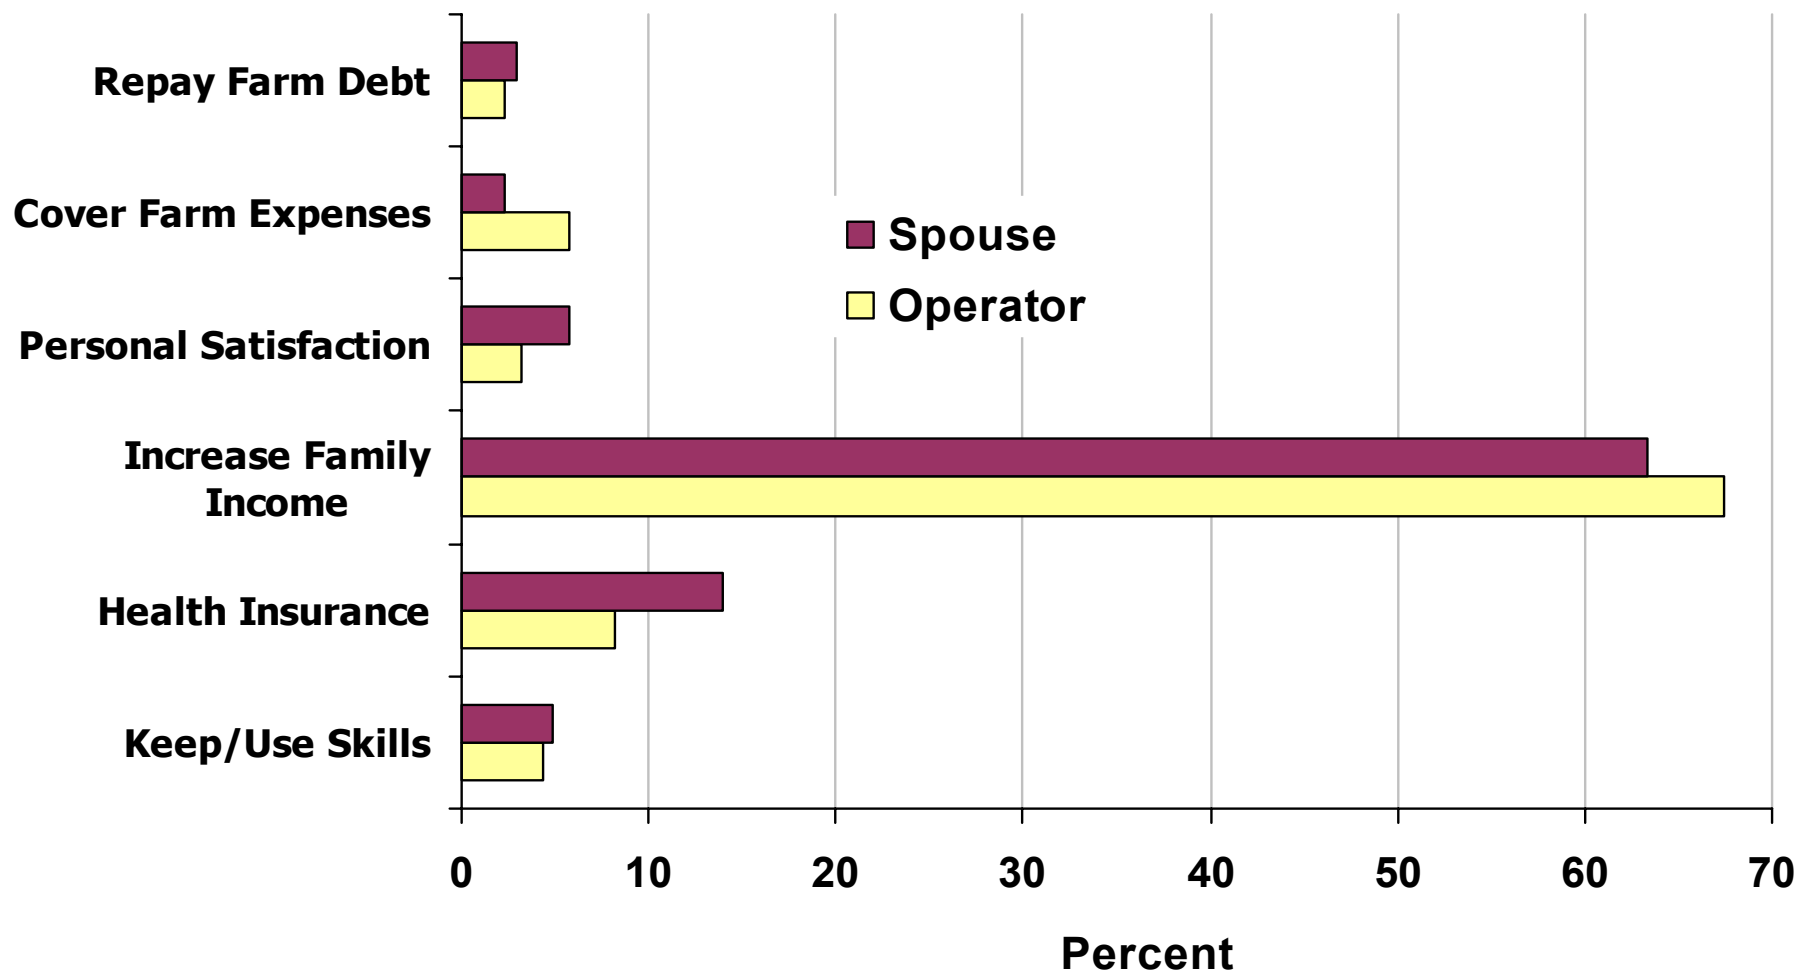

Figure 13. Average Number of Years Operators and Spouses Made Decisions for a Farm and Held an Off-Farm Job

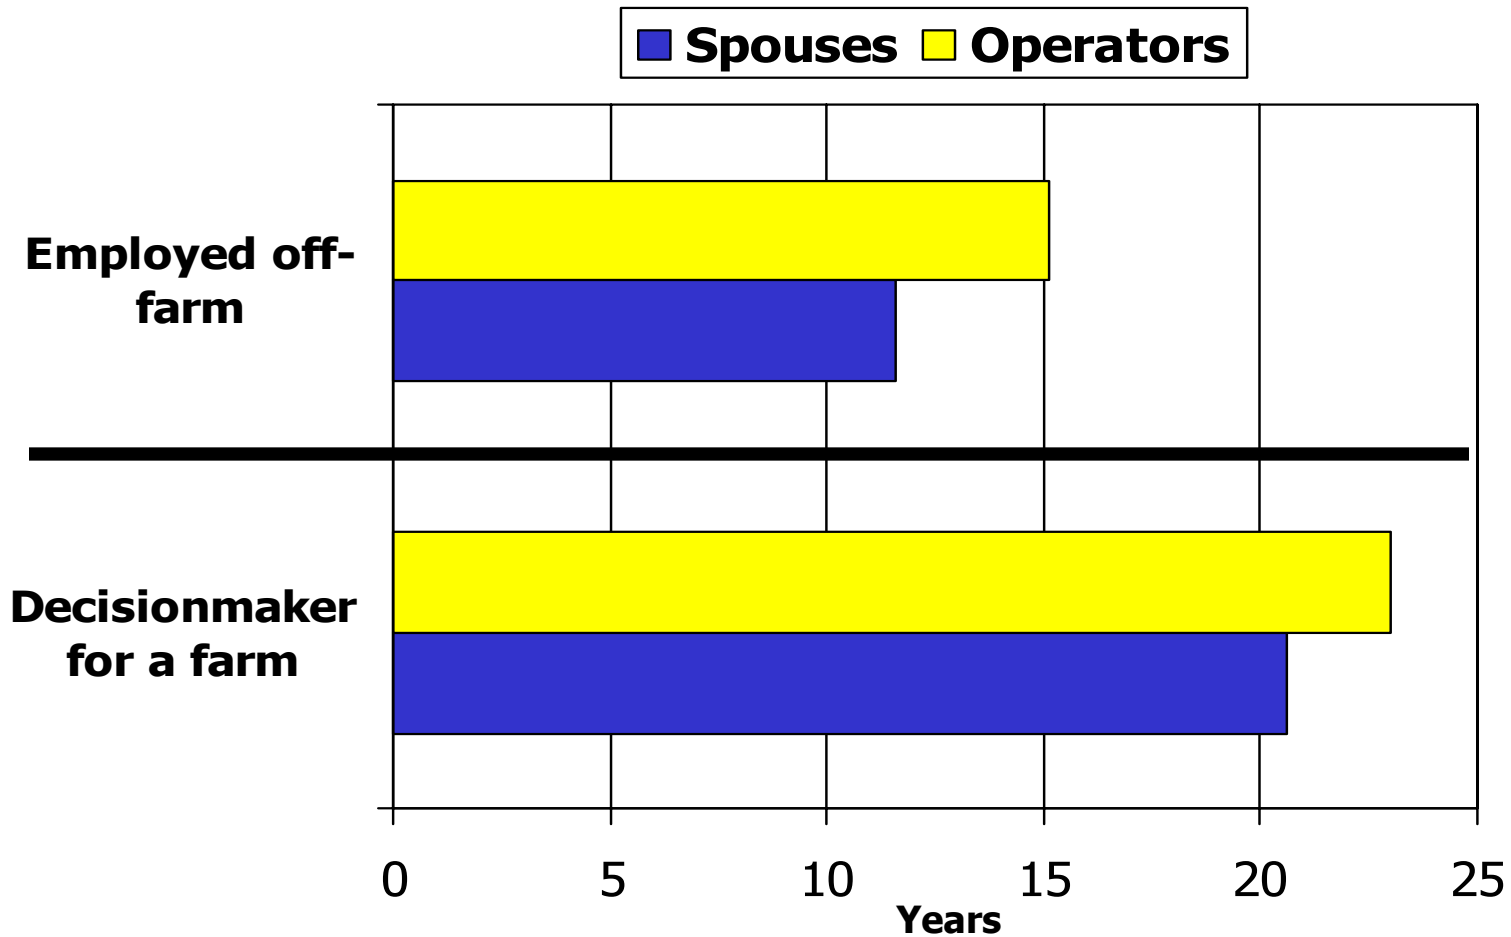

Figure 14. Types of Off-Farm Jobs Held by Farm Operators and Spouses

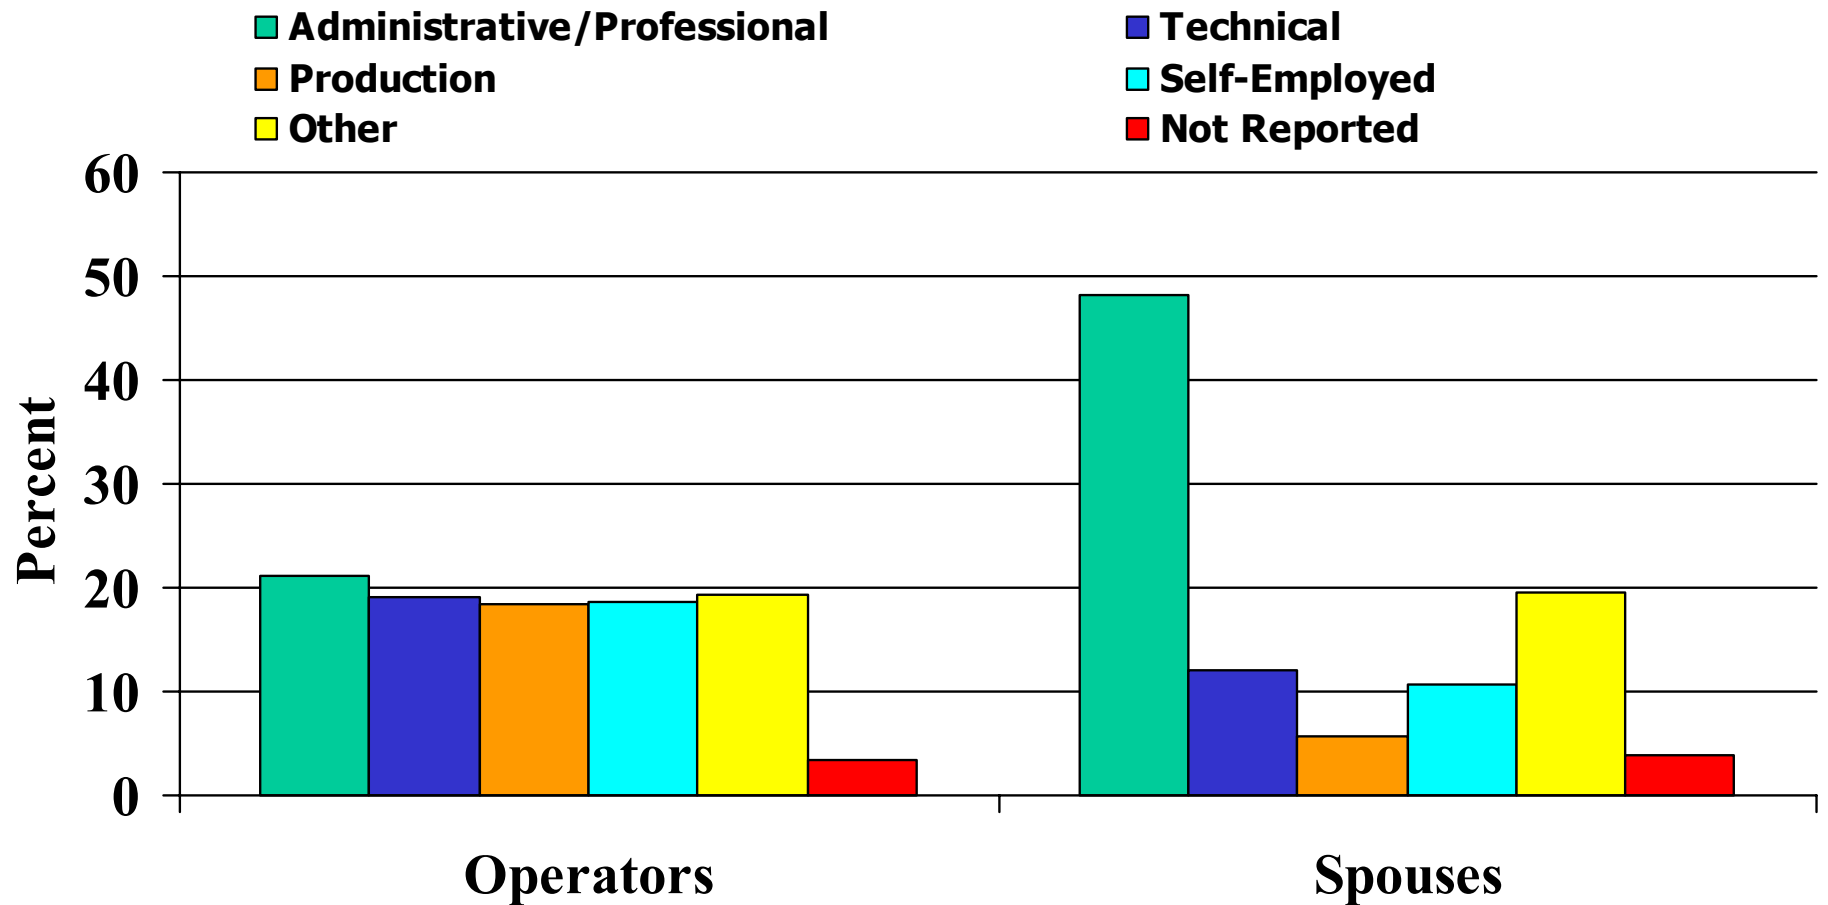

Figure 15. Financial Assets of Farm Households

