

Harmonized poverty indicators for monitoring sustainable development

- BENEFICIARY COUNTRIES – Azerbaijan, Armenia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Republic of Moldova, Russian Federation, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan.
- OBJECTIVE: Increase statistical capacity for producing comparable and reliable poverty indicators for monitoring sustainable development in the CIS region
- PERIOD: 2016-2017
- Expected accomplishments:
  - Strengthening the statistical capacity of the CIS countries on poverty statistics
  - Increased harmonisation of poverty statistics in CIS countries
- The project will be implemented with collaboration of CIS-STAT and ROSSTAT, with funding from Russian Federation.
- Experts from international organizations and research institutions.

Main activities

- Workshop on poverty statistics, 11 July 2016
- Workshop on harmonizing the sources and methods of poverty measurement (Oct-Nov 2016) in CIS country
- Harmonized survey for comparable poverty measures
- Technical guidelines on common approach to poverty measurement in CIS countries
- Workshop for reviewing the test results and the guidelines (2017)