

The use of a centre of gravity height allowance (tolerance) between the vehicles actually tested for the Annex 19 test report and the vehicle(s) for which the test report can be utilized at the time of type-approval

