1. In the changes for 2013 the text in P200 refers to the competent authority approval, namely in P200 (3) (d) and paragraph (9). In order to take account of the bodies who effectively are in charge of the approvals in 6.2.3.6.1 we propose to adapt the text as follows: (new text underlined)

Proposal

P200 (3) (d), in the NOTE, at the end, replace "which approved the receptacles" with "or body designated by this authority which issued the type approval".

P200 (9) At the end of the last paragraph, replace "by the competent authority of the Contracting Party to ADR which has approved the technical code for the design and construction" with "by the competent authority or body designated by this authority which issued the type approval".
